Farm Loan Bill Unanimously Passed by Senate

MEASURE GRANTS CREDIT TO FARMER OF OVER BILLION

Bill Provides Establishment of Credit Departments in Twelve Land Bank Districts.

SEVERAL AMENDMENTS DEFEATED BY SOLONS

Co-Operative Bank Plan of Brookhart Withdrawn After Much Severe Criticism by Senators.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Washington, February 2.—Consideration of farm credit legislation was concluded by the senate tonight when it passed the Lenroot-Anderson bill. The measure now goes to the house where the Capper co-operative credit bill is under study.

The vote on passage was unanimous, 69 to 0, the measure going through without material amendment. The vote, however, was not made unanimous until Senator Norbeck, republican, South Dakota, had withdrawn a lone negative vote, explaining that he would be "a good fellow."

The Lenroot-Anderson bill provides for the existence of a maximum credit of $1,520,000,000 for agricultural loans through the existing farm loan system by establishment of twelve agricultural credit departments in the twelve land bank districts. Each would have $5,000,000 capital from the government, with authority to double the entire capital of $50,000,000. Authority to issue $1,200,000,000 in tax-free debentures to provide additional loaning capital, would be given subject to approval of the farm loan board.

Several forms of loans. The new credit departments would make loans from six months to three years on agricultural paper to co-operative agricultural associations on staple products of live stock. Interest rates chargeable would not be in excess of 11.2 per cent above the land bank's rediscount rates. The debentures authorized would not bear over 6 per cent interest, under an amendment by Senator Fletcher, democrat, Florida, adopted today by the senate.

An amendment by Senator Harrison, democrat, Mississippi, to have direct loans made to individual farmers was defeated.

In passing the Lenroot-Anderson bill, the senate rejected the substitute measure of Senator Norbeck, for which a strong fight was made with the backing of some agricultural organizations. It provided for centralization of farm credit funds by proposed administration of the war finance corporation.

Brookhart Plan Withdrawn. The co-operative bank plan of Senator Brookhart, republican, Iowa, also was defeated. It was the proposal characterized by Senator Lenroot as "a Russian soviet" plan and by Senator Glass, democrat, Virginia, former secretary of the treasury, as destructive to the federal reserve act.

So much criticism developed that Senator Brookhart withdrew his amendment.

Another amendment rejected, 53 to 21, by Senator Robinson, democrat, Arkansas, and sponsored by Gray Silver, of the American farm bureau federation, would have created a separate farm credit bureau, district from the present farm loan board, to administer the plan of the Lenroot-Anderson bill.

An amendment by Senator Harris, democrat, Georgia, to require uniform rediscunt rates for all federal reserve banks was defeated without a record vote.

The senate adopted an amendment by Senator Pomerehne, democrat, Ohio, providing that loans to co-operative agricultural associations should be limited to 75 per cent of the market value of staple products or livestock given as security.

A proposal by Senator Smith, democrat, South Carolina, to increase the

Cold Spell Due Here by Sunday Says Forecaster

Mr. Ground Hog Makes Good for a Few Days at Least.

Mr. Ground Hog, put it there! It looks like your retreat to a cozy place of repose to snatch another beauty nap is entirely justified. Perhaps not justified for an entire six weeks—but the next few days will surely be a sample of the kind of weather the sight of your shadow has made you expect.

That point has been yielded even by the weather bureau—and the weather men say this theory about your shadow on February 2 is all bosh. But the next few days will bring a cold wave, according to the weather forecast—even if they don't give you credit for foretelling it by having seen your shadow and forthwith crept back to bed!

Predict Cold Wave.

Weather forecasts from Washington Friday predicted a cold wave for the entire southeastern section of the country, as far south as Florida. Cold weather for Atlanta is expected Saturday, although it will probably not be as cold as the ground hog shadow might have indicated Friday.

Sunday the mercury may go as low as 30—but the weather man says he does not see any probability of very much severe weather for this winter.

The cold weather is coming from the Canadian northwest, C. F. von Herrmann, meteorologist at the local weather bureau office, stated that it would be slightly felt Saturday, a little more pronounced Sunday—but all that depends on the movement of a certain low pressure area which Friday hovered over Denver, Col.

"If this low was a little further out of the way," said Mr. von Herrmann, indicating the Denver area on the weather map, "we could more accurately predict what is going to happen tomorrow and the next day or so. But as it stands now, we can't tell what is going to happen, because of the uncertainty of the movement of this low."

Derides Ground Hog.

"There is absolutely nothing to the ground hog theory—except it furnishes a good basis for a joke—and it looks as if we are certain of an early spring, regardless of the ground hog's shadow. It is possible that the temperature will reach 30 Sunday, but as I said, this depends on the movement of that low pressure area."

"If this low gets off rapidly to the northeast, then the cold will come in from the northwest. At any rate, it will be a little cooler tomorrow, and a little cooler still on Sunday."

"But the ground hog is all wrong."

REVENUE AGENTS MAKE SWEEPING RAIDS AT CAPITAL

Ninety Persons, Including 12 Women, Docketed on Booze Charges in Whirlwind Campaign.

"KENTUCKY COLONEL" LEADS BOOZE SQUADS

Washington's Precinct Stations Present Busiest Appearance in Years. Police Set High Bonds.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Washington, February 2.—J. L. Asher, a revenue agent from the Kentucky mountains, who came to Washington three weeks ago and has put in his time since in gales ranging from an ash cart driver to a Kentucky colonel at a fashionable ball, today directed more than 60 capital revenue agents and police in liquor raids on 60 persons, including 12 women, and the confiscation of more than 300 gallons of intoxicants.

Evidence for the raids which were begun in five police precincts at 11 a. m. and were not completed until late in the day, the most all-inclusive campaign conducted in the city since the advent of prohibition, was obtained almost entirely by Asher.

The five precinct stations presented their busiest appearances in years as bondsmen hastened to gain the release of prisoners, practically all of whom were held for $1,500 bail, and police, and revenue agents guarded prisoners and directed the storage of huge supplies of corn whiskey, bonded goods and wine carried in from the raided homes in government trucks and automobiles. In only one instance were the raiders disappointed by failure to find the goods described by the Kentuckian.

Is Real "Sherlock."

Asher first drove into the underworld in quest of the bootleggers' rendezvous aboard an ice wagon as a helper. He then switched to an ash cart and quickly caught the trail of victims as he picked up the "empties" in all corners of the city. Then as a coal wagon driver, he got into the homes again, assisting in storing away the coal and modestly accepting pint bottle rewards. He later appeared as a piano tuner and again as a lawyer.

Before long Asher had won the con-

"Boss" of Radio Tells of Great Growth in U. S.

Provisions of White Bill Discussed by Bureau of Navigation Head.

Inspectors' Office Here.

Not later than June, 1923, Atlanta will be named headquarters for a corps of radio inspectors, declared D. B. Carson, "big boss" of radio, when he was in Atlanta yesterday.

"I don't know just how big the office force will be at first," Mr. Carson said, "but there will be three or four men at least. This is made possible by the increase in our appropriation for radio inspectors. I will be able to add 25 or 30 men."

Eighteen months ago there were not more than 25 radio stations in the United States holding licenses to broadcast concerts, news and markets.

Imagine, then, the rapid growth and development of the art of radio telephone and radio telegraph that has brought this number of broadcasting stations near the 700 mark and the number of licensed operators in the nation to 25,000.

That was the growth and development outlined here Friday by D. B. Carson, commissioner of the bureau of navigation of the department of commerce. Mr. Carson, a former Atlanta man, is known in business circles throughout the south, and right now as head of governmental control of radio is expected to solve many questions of interference between radio stations of different classes.

First Time Over Radio.

Incidentally, Mr. Carson, after speaking to listeners Friday evening from Station WGM, The Constitution, remarked that in all his experience with radio stations and operators, it was the first time he had ever spoken into a radio station's microphone.

The growth and development of the radio art, Mr. Carson said, has carried radio into approximately 2,000,000 homes in the United States.

This growth in the number of receiving sets has been brought about by the rapid increase in the number of broadcasting stations, Mr. Carson added, saying that 18 months ago the radio receiver was an object of deep speculation by semi-scientific and mechanical minds, while now it has become the favorite amusement of the school boy as well as the means of entertainment to thousands of persons who love music.

Probably one of the most interesting subjects Mr. Carson discussed was the White bill now ready to go.

NATIONAL GUARD TROOPS ORDERED TO KENTUCKY CITY

Situation at Corbin Tense Following Fatalities in Battle Between Rail Workers and Police.

SPECIAL OFFICERS QUIT CITY'S EMPLOY

Town Was Scene of Several Disturbances During Railroad Strike of Last Summer.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Frankfort, Ky., February 2.—Twenty-five national guardsmen, from Troop B, 53d machine gun squadron, London, Ky., were ordered to Corbin, Ky., tonight by Governor E. P. Morrow after Mayor J. S. Gilliam, of Corbin, and Sheriff Young, of Whitley county, had reported the situation there was getting beyond their control. The present strained condition followed a gun battle between railroad workers and special officers early Tuesday when two men were killed and two wounded.

STRAINED SITUATION EXISTS IN TOWN.

Corbin, Ky., February 2.—A strained situation ascribed by officials here to a gun battle early Tuesday between railroad workers and special officers in which two men were killed and two wounded has resulted in the ordering of 25 national guardsmen here for duty.

In an appeal to Governor Morrow for troops, Mayor John Gilliam and Sheriff Young of Whitley county, were said to have declared the situation, while quiet, was getting beyond their control. It was said special police recently appointed were resigning and that city officials were unable to obtain others to fill the vacancies.

Cause of Fight Unknown.

The cause of Tuesday's gun battle has not been established definitely. J. C. Barker, 44, train dispatcher for the Louisville and Nashville railroad and George Yaden, of London, Ky., a special policeman, were killed. Jesse Barker, switchman and Fred Day, special officer, were wounded. A. K. Richmond, another special officer, engaged in the fight, but was unhurt.

Lamar is said to have served no part of his conspiracy sentence.

Kid Glove Bloc Routs Farm Ring In Senate Halls

Agriculturists Give Up When They Are Shown Longworth's "Patches."

Constitution Bureau, Raleigh Hotel.

Washington, February 2.—(By Constitution Leased Wire.)—"Patched pants" and spats, incompatible though they be, have come to figure prominently in the race for republican floor leader of the next house of representatives.

Opposition to the candidacy of Representative Nicholas Longworth, son-in-law of former President Roosevelt, developed at the start among agriculturists and laborites, who charged his name was put forward in the effort to have the kid glove bloc retain control of the party. They pointed to Mr. Longworth's spats, which the cold weather brought out, to identify him with this group.

The conservative candidate, however, immediately directed the attention of his critics to the "ankle-wear" worn by Senator LaFollette, recognized leader of the progressive-radical bloc.

If LaFollette wore spats, why shouldn't he? asked Longworth.

Shortly after this repartee was given the rumor that Longworth was the best dressed member of congress. That brought forth the "patched pants" expose. His friends threw consternation into the ranks of the farm bloc by showing that even with his ornamental distinction he flaunted a patch.

There is still some speculation among the left wing as to how the patch came about. For instance, they want to know whether he got the patch following the plow, sitting on a carpenter's bench, or climbing a barbed wire fence after a golf ball.

Hotly resenting the inference, Longworth's friends say not only does he wear patched trousers but that during the war he turned them wrong side out and had them made over.

Meantime the race is warming up with the successor to Floor Leader Mondell, who retires after March, still in doubt.

Noted Artists Will Be Heard Sunday at 3:30

Station WGM Will Broadcast Recital by Trio of Brilliant Atlanta Artists.

Charles A. Sheldon, Jr., widely known city organist of Atlanta, has arranged an unusually attractive recital for music lovers of this city on Sunday afternoon at 3:30, in the Auditorium. The arrangement will include solos and a duet by Nora Allen, lyric soprano, and John Hinton, lyric tenor. As usual, station WGM, The Atlanta Constitution, will broadcast the recital.

Miss Allen and Mr. Hinton, assisted by Fannie Segal, noted pianist, have just returned to Atlanta from concert engagements in Fort Valley and Montezuma, where they were enthusiastically received. Following Sunday's program they will leave on a several days' tour in an adjoining state. Already engagements have been made in New Orleans, Memphis and other leading southern cities for the early spring.

Miss Allen and Mr. Hinton are two of the greatest radio stars in America. They have been heard on scores of WGM programs during the past few weeks and enjoy wide popularity with radio fans.

Miss Allen was a member of the Chicago Opera company for many years, and Mr. Hinton is studying under Signor E. Volpi of this city. He is a native Georgian and many critics believe he is destined to become one of America's greatest tenors.

The solos and duets by this duo of gifted artists will intersperse a number of brilliant organ selections by City Organist Sheldon.

The recital will begin at 3:30 and is free to the public.

HARDING TO URGE IMMEDIATE VOTE ON BRITISH DEBT

Agreement Completed to Last Details Goes to the White House for Official Sanction Saturday.

BONUS QUESTION AGAIN CROPS UP

Believe Leaders Will Back President in Fight to Keep Bonus Separate From Debt Agreement.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Washington, February 2.—The American debt funding commission in conversations today with Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador, as the representative of his government completed details of the program for the funding of Great Britain's war time debt to the United States.

The final draft of the plan is expected to be sent to the white house tomorrow with recommendations that it be given executive approval and be sent to congress for legislative action in confirmation of the commission's negotiations.

In conformity with previous announcements, the plan contemplates final extinguishment of the debt in 32 years with interest rates fixed at 3 per cent for the first ten years from December 15, 1922, and three and one-half per cent thereafter, together with a fixed schedule of amortization payments appropriating an average of one-half of 1 per cent of the principal.

The annual installments are scheduled to begin with a payment of $23,000,000 this year but the British government is given the right to make the annual payments in three-year periods instead of every twelve months. The amount of the annual payments will progressively increase until in the 32d year the payment will be $175,000,000 and the total of all the payments will aggregate the total principal of the debt.

GERMAN OFFICIALS PREVAIL ON MEN TO RESUME JOBS

Complete Isolation of Ruhr From Unoccupied Germany in Coal Shipments Is Successful.

INVADERS DIVERT FOOD SHIPMENTS

Germany Scores in Passive Resistance Policy as Complete Cessation of Work in Mines Seen.

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.

Dusseldorf, February 2.—The calling off of the railroad strike by the German authorities and obedience by the railwaymen to a request of the authorities that they resume work on all lines where they would not come in contact with armed French soldiers were the outstanding developments today in the events of a day that was regarded by observers as having brought forth a great improvement in the French position in the Ruhr and the Rhineland. A majority of the railroad workers in both regions adopted the suggestion of the authorities that they resume their jobs.

Complete stoppage of all exports of coal and coke into the interior of Germany during the last 48 hours, together with the extension today of similar restrictions on shipments of beetroot, tar and all other mine by-products, were other developments considered of advantage to the French.

Take Over Food.

In addition the French have taken over the handling of food trains consigned to the regions traversed by the railroads where strikes still are in effect and also directed the transportation by barges on the canals and the Rhine of sufficient coal for the needs of local populations and industries.

The complete cessation of coal production at the mines, now virtually an accomplished fact, and the inability of the French to send by rail into France any coal for the reparations account were the developments in the situation favoring Germany in her policy of resistance.

Care for Population.

In assuming charge of the feeding of the civil population in the Ruhr where the railway strike persists the French moved three trains into the region today manned by French crews. The trains were consigned to Essen, Dortmund and Gelsenkirchen warehouses and markets. French trucks began the hauling of coal through

Gretna Green Shamed By Recorder's Court As Marriage Center

Gretna Green pales into insignificance as a marriage center when compared to Recorder George E. Johnson's police court.

Friday afternoon a couple of elongated and a similar number of dusky bellies were haled into the court under the all-inclusive charge of "disorderly conduct," and a situation that dangerously bordered on the foreign custom of "trial marriages" was brought to light.

The judge issued an immediate S.
O. B. call for a minister of the colored persuasion, whereupon a general forward rush of all negro adult males resulted. The recorder selected a likely-looking parson and delayed court proceedings while the two "blushing" couples were united in the bonds of the same matrimony they had studiously avoided for "over eight years."
The action of the court was generally accepted as "a life sentence."

READY FOR PARADE OF CONTEST AUTOS

mediate entrance to the club with their eyes glued steadily on the big Packard Twin Six that heads the awards.

Awards Increased.
Automobile awards have been practically doubled by addition this week of five expensive, high-grade cars to the original list.

The list of competitors is smaller than it was before the increase in awards was made. This is due to the fact that club officials are eliminating all persons who prove to be undesirable in any way.

The inference is as plain as the nose on your face. More prizes, less competition—greater individual chance to win.

Then get busy.

Out-of-town Residents.
Now then, a word in the ear of residents of other towns and rural districts:

From time to time Help-Yourself club has published a list of its members and their standing in the campaign. In last Tuesday's Constitution the last published list appeared, and another will be made public in Monday morning's Constitution.

Watch this list carefully. If your town or community is not represented by a contestant, a golden opportunity is knocking at your door.
Don't wait until some ambitious man or woman rushes his or her name in.
Beat them to it. Clip out your entrance coupon today and rush to the mail box without a minute's delay.

On the other hand, if your town or community is represented, don't think you are barred from entering.
First of all, assure yourself that a regular worker represents your section. Many are in the race who are not going to take advantage of their opportunity by doing honest-to-goodness work to win one of those forty prizes, according to Help-Yourself officials, and there's no reason why you should let "dead timber" block your path to prosperity.

Come Into Race.
Even if you go out to boldly buck a good competitor in your town or city, remember that people all over the state are doing the same, identical thing.

Here's an iron-clad rule that has no exceptions: If you really want to win, nobody on earth can head
you off from your desire.
So while Atlanta is getting a glimpse of the first assemblage of the sixteen sumptuous automobiles—each the boast of a proud maker whose name is a by-word in the automobile industry—step right into the race and hitch your wagon to whatever star you most admire in the unexcelled list of awards.

The contest is young. You will be under no disadvantage—but enlist
now, today.

Parade Route.
The route of this morning's parade
follows:

Assemble on North avenue between Peachtree and West Peachtree. Go north on West Peachtree to Pershing Point; south on Peachtree to Tenth street; east on Tenth and Virginia avenue to Highland avenue; Highland avenue to Briarcliff place; Briarcliff

List of Prizes.
Eight major automobile awards are offered free-for-all to the candidates who conduct the most aggressive campaign and gather the greatest total of votes. The major awards are:
Packard Twin-Six ... $4,250.00 value
Franklin Sedan ... 3,100.00 value
Hudson Coach ... 1,085.00 value
Reo Six Touring ... 1,085.00 value
Jewett Six Coupe ... 1,045.00 value
Oakland Six Coupe ... 1,295.00 value
Chandler Six Touring ... 1,275.00 value
Olds Eight Touring ... 1,250.00 value

District Prizes.
The eight district automobile awards—one car to the leader of each of the eight districts into which the state has been divided—are as follows:

Nash Six Touring ... $1,400.00 value
Willis-Knight Touring ... 1,380.00 value
Buick Six Touring ... 1,350.00 value
Essex Coach ... 1,285.00 value
Hupmobile Touring ... 1,250.00 value
Maxwell Sport ... 1,150.00 value
Studebaker Six Touring ... 1,125.00 value
Chevrolet Sedan ... 995.75 value
In addition, 24 cash prizes, totaling $4,000 and an estimated cash commission of $2,000 will be given winners in the contest.

Office of Club.
The office of the Help-Yourself club is located on the third floor of The Constitution building. It is open from 8 a. m. to 9 p. m. daily. The office is open Sunday. The club members will be glad to talk with you material is to be gained through passage of the bill.

"Even then, the bill will have to be amended regularly in order to keep its provisions abreast of the developments of the art of radio. It is ever-changing. There is not a day passes but that some new development is not brought out. Of course it is in its infancy, but its rapid development indicates that it is here to stay."

The government thought at first that radio might be a fad that would pass in a short time, but every turn has shown it to be permanent. The interest now is at even higher pitch than when it first appeared in a popular way. And interest is continually increasing."

Mr. Carson said that officials of his department are waiting until the White bill is passed before taking up any of the questions to be thrashed out in meeting its provisions. The secretary of commerce, he explained, will have full authority in allocating wave-lengths and regulating the power of different stations.

Provisions of Bill.
Speaking of the provisions of the White bill, Mr. Carson said:
"While the secretary of commerce will be the main force under the bill, the advisory board, which the bill would create, would be a big factor.
This board, as provided by the White bill, is to be made up of six men who are interested in radio as manufacturers, technical experts and operators of transmitting stations and six government men. In this way the manufacturers, the public and the government are represented. Only the highest type of men will be appointed and they will meet whenever they are called together, probably about three or four times a year."

The rapid development of the radio
art was brought out forcibly by Mr.
Carson as he told of a new discovery which was shown him a few days ago in Washington. The discoverer was a man who was instrumental in working out the first details of radio, but whose slackened activities had left him out of the limelight for a year or so.

The new discovery was the means of taking a photograph of a man or scene at a distance by radio.

"Think of it," Mr. Carson said.
"Newspapers could hear of a wreck at a certain place and be able to take a photograph of it in all its details without any members of the staffs leaving the office. He showed me a picture he had taken of President Harding at a distance of nearly a mile. It was as good as many newspaper pictures I have seen of Mr.

Harding."

Radio Use on Ships.
Speaking of the use of radio by the government, Mr. Carson said that several lightships have been discarded.
They were rendered obsolete by the use of radio in guiding ships at sea, he explained. He pointed to the big saving to the government in the ultimate replacement of lightships by a complete system of radio communication.

Right now, Mr. Carson said, the government has seven stations at different points to broadcast trade conditions, periodically.

"Mr. Hoover is so ambitious in his program for building up the country's commerce," Mr. Carson remarked with a smile, "that I am a little afraid he will be inclined to devote radio exclusively to commercial use.
Never have I seen a more vigorous man in governmental circles. He works untiringly."

Mr. Carson is on a tour of the south inspecting personally some of the largest radio broadcasting stations and making a general survey of navigation conditions in southern ports.
He declared that what the country
most needs now is a measure of the ship subsidy measure.

"It would be one of the greatest things that could be done for the building up of southern ports," Mr. Carson declared.

A number of years ago Mr. Carson was in the railroad business in Atlanta. Later he moved to Nashville, Tenn., continuing in the railroad business there. He is a frequent visitor to the south but has been unable during the last year and a half, since his appointment as United States commissioner of navigation, to spend much time out of Washington.

ATLANTA ENTERTAINS
KUNTZ LUMBER MEN

Seventy-five officials and associates of the Peter Kuntz company associated with the lumbermen of Dayton, Ohio, were entertained at a luncheon Friday night at the chamber of commerce by the convention bureau and chamber of commerce. The lumbermen reached Atlanta early Friday morning from Jacksonville and were taken on an automobile sight-seeing trip.

B. S. Barker, chamber secretary, made the opening address at the luncheon in which he outlined the lumber resources of Georgia and facilities for handling it in all its stages. Peter Kuntz, president of the organization, followed with a short address, outlining the activities of his organization.

The party left Dayton two weeks ago and has visited cities in Missouri, Arkansas, Louisiana and Florida. Plants of competitive firms were visited in all states. The trip, according to President Kuntz, was arranged in order to familiarize members of his organization with the expense of producing lumber. Fred Houser, secretary of the convention bureau, entertained the visitors with a number of popular vocal selections. The Kuntz men answered with a rousing chorus of "Nobody Knows How Dry I Am."

ICE PRICE REDUCTION ANNOUNCED FOR CITY

A reduction in the price of ice of 10 cents per 100 pounds, which means that ice can now be bought for 40 cents per hundred, was announced Friday by several companies. The new price went into effect on February 1. Among the companies announcing the reduction are the Atlantic Ice and Coal corporation, Consumers' Ice company, Fulton Ice and Coal company, and Ponce de Leon Ice company.

ASMON LEWIS SEEKS
TAX BOARD POSITION

Five-Cornered Contest for Berth Will Be Spirited, Officials Say.

Asmon Lewis, Atlanta business man, formerly a member of the firm of Lewis Brothers, grain dealers, is in the race for a place on the board of city tax assessors, it was announced Friday.

Mr. Lewis' candidacy to succeed Assessor A. C. Burton, whose term, with that of William A. Hancock, expires June 30, is being fostered by several members of council. It was revealed Friday at the city hall. Three other candidates, as well as Mr. Burton himself, will seek the place, it was stated. Other prospective candidates are W. M. Bearden, Tarry Perkinson and Drew Liddell.

J. C. Little, third member of the board of city tax assessors, was elected last July, for a three-year term.

Viaduct Must Be Right, Say
Builders; Columns Shifted

Workers tearing down one of the two great concrete supports of the Spring street viaduct after it had been discovered that they were eight inches out of alignment. "The bridge must be right in every way," declared the builders when they caught the error, so they lost no time in bringing sledges and chisels into play. Two new supports will be erected exactly in line without causing any delay in completing the viaduct on schedule time.

Every detail of the Spring street viaduct, Atlanta's new $850,000 bridge project, must conform to plans precisely as drawn, builders of the structure declared Friday, in removing two of the columns which were found to be erected a distance of eight inches from their required positions. Discovery of the improper distance between the two columns was made early in the week when workmen endeavored to fit steel supports to the columns. All of the supports were made especially for the viaduct by the Virginia Bridge and Steel works, and conform to a certain length, it was stated.

As the result of the eight-inch variance in the columns, the contractors immediately began to replace them with new ones. This will not delay the structure, officials declared, but it will be ready for public use by October 1, they stated.

WORK IS RESUMED
AT BAUXITE MINES

Rome Gas Company Seeks Funds With Which to Improve Service. Church Meet Adjourns.

Rome, Ga., February 2.—(Special.) The Hebble Mining company of Cartersville, Ga., has commenced operations on its bauxite mines in the Spring Creek district, about ten miles from Rome, and it is announced that operations will be conducted on a large scale with a full force of men until the present demands of the company are filled. The mines have not been operated in some time.

The Women's Methodist convention of the North Georgia conference adjourned its 1923 sessions today after selecting Griffin as the meeting place for next year. The attendance through the five-day session has been unusually large. Today's final session was devoted to unfinished business.

S. F. Defrese, until recently manager of the Chattanooga Gas company, left here today for the east with the avowed purpose of floating debentures of the Rome Municipal Gas company, of which he is president, to secure funds for improving and enlarging the Rome plant.

He will move to Rome, he announced, and attempt to secure cooperation of the consumers in bettering the service, about which complaints have been constant for a long time.

The local company now is asking a raise in rates from the Georgia public utilities commission, and the city of Rome is asking a reduction of the rates on the ground of bad service.

SURVEY BUILDING HERE

Government Gathering Facts of Building Efficiency.

Paul H. Moncreur, special agent of the bureau of labor statistics, is making a building efficiency survey of Atlanta to determine efficiency in production.

Atlanta was selected as the starting point of the survey because of its strides in building. Mr. Moncreur stated. About 100 representative American cities will be included in the survey.

Mr. Moncreur is being aided in his work by Paul H. Norcross, consulting engineer, a member of a committee of seven appointed by the bureau of labor to make tests of working conditions in the representative cities selected.

Investigations of the five building trades, bricklayers, carpenters, plasterers, plumbers and painters are being conducted.

BAKERY DESTROYED
BY FIRE IN GRIFFIN

Griffin, Ga., February 2.—(Special.) The Griffin bakery on West Taylor street, was completely destroyed by fire, early this morning. The apparatus, equipment, furniture and stock of goods on hand were demolished and nothing was left but the brick walls. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The undertaking establishment of Frank S. Pittman, next door, was also damaged by smoke, water and heat. The loss was partially covered by insurance, about $8,000 being carried on the bakery.

George Strongman Dies.

Savannah, Ga., February 2.—(Special.)—George Strongman, prominent here for years and for a long time head of the Federal Municipal Employment bureau, died at an early hour this morning at a local hospital. He had been ill two weeks. He is survived by his widow and two daughters. He was a native of England.

YOU KNOW how you have looked on with something akin to envy as you have seen your neighbors and friends pile into a luxurious automobile and spin off to the cool, sweet, refreshing country to enjoy a respite from the noisy, stuffy city. You can do the same thing this spring and summer! Get in The Constitution's Help-Yourself Club, and before you realize it, votes will be mounting up beside your name as the result of your efforts. It's easy work, too. Just solicit your friends for subscriptions to The Constitution. With your entry blank 5,000 votes are given, and for your first subscription 10,000 extra votes are awarded if turned in before February 7th.

100,000 Extra Votes Given

In addition to the regular votes allowed on subscription payments as shown in the voting schedule, we make the members the following offer:

This offer is open now and closes Saturday, February 17, at 9 p. m.

100,000 extra votes will be given to every member who sends or brings $25.00 in subscriptions to the office of the Club Manager in Atlanta during this period.

The larger amount you send during this period, the larger will be your extra vote ballot.

For example, for $26.00 you will receive 104,000 extra votes; for $27.00 you will receive 108,000 extra votes, and so on.

In other words, if you turn in $25.00 in subscription payments on or before Saturday, February 17, at 9 p. m., you will earn the extra votes and for every dollar over and above the $25.00 you will be given 5,000 extra votes.

SUBSCRIPTION PAYMENTS ARE WORTH MORE VOTES DURING THIS PERIOD THAN THEY WILL BE AT ANY TIME DURING THE CLUB.

THIS EXTRA VOTE OFFER IS NOW OPEN AND CLOSES FEBRUARY 17, AT 9 P. M. THE CLUB DOES NOT CLOSE UNTIL SATURDAY NIGHT, MARCH 31, 1923. DO NOT GET THESE DATES CONFUSED.

of securing a decision whereby the bankruptcy laws could be used as a basis for action against the organization.

The adjudication was denied on the ground that, according to the charter of the concern, it was a benevolent and not a business or moneyed corporation, and according to its principal object and business at the time of its failure it was an insurance corporation, under either view of which it was not subject to involuntary bankruptcy.

A School For Citizens

At 8 o'clock tonight there will be a lecture at Cable Hall by Hooper Alexander, which, it is understood, will deal, in part at least, with crime conditions in Georgia and Atlanta and related matters. Those sponsoring the lecture are of opinion, and so declare, that conditions are not only becoming worse, but are sure to become a great deal worse, and that no remedy is in sight unless the general mass of the people acquaint themselves with what is going on. In fact, they say that there is a condition of dry rot that has settled down on the public; that there exists no medium through which the public may hold conference among themselves, and that some sort of civic forum has become a vital necessity, not only for the consideration of these matters, but of others. Hence the determination to open a regular forum for citizens. From time to time all phases of all questions will be presented, with opportunity for differing views to be put forward, not in the way of partisan debate, but calmly and reasonably, and, above all things, decently and respectfully.

Full Cooperation Pledged By Agricultural Leaders

Dr. Andrew M. Soule, president of the Georgia State College of Agriculture at Athens, and Commissioner J. J. Brown, head of the Georgia state department of agriculture, photographed on the steps of the state capitol following a conference Friday over best means of a joint and co-ordinated attack on the boll weevil and other farm problems.

J. J. Brown and A. M. Soule Confer Over Plans to Improve Georgia Farm Conditions.

Georgia's two great agricultural institutions, the state college of agriculture at Athens and the state agricultural department with headquarters at the capitol here, have swung fully into step in a joint campaign for a greater agricultural Georgia.

The troth plighted in Athens last week when Commissioner James J. Brown conferred with Dr. Andrew M. Soule in his office at the college was reaffirmed when Dr. Soule held a long and cordial conference with Commissioner Brown in his office here Friday.

The two are heartily co-operative in their efforts for Georgia's welfare, and especially in the campaign against the boll weevil.

Dr. Soule came to Atlanta for the day to address the federation of women's clubs in session at the chamber of commerce, but went direct from the station to the capitol to see Commissioner Brown and discuss the many important things they are mutually interested in. The conversation was so engrossing that Dr. Soule was able to keep his woman's club appointment only by a wild dash from capitol to chamber of commerce in the commissioner's automobile.

Understand Each Other.

"We fully understand each other's plans," Dr. Soule told a reporter, "and we are arranging the work of the college scientists and field men to coordinate with that of the state department's scientists and field men in a way to make both the college, and the state department more effective than they have ever been before."

"There has never been anything personal in the differences between the department and the college," Commissioner Brown said, "and with the better understanding each of us now has of the work of the other, we are eliminating duplication of effort in the lost motion in agricultural development work."

"If there ever was a time," he continued, "when every Georgia institution, its colleges, its state departments, its banks, its chambers of commerce, and its business men, should present a united front in facing the problems of agriculture, that time is now. The college and the department are bending every effort toward the conquering of the boll weevil menace and in working together without a scintilla of lost motion we believe we will be better able to win the fight."

Work of Departments.

Dr. Soule concurred heartily in this statement.

While the efforts of the two institutions dove-tail into each other to so fine a point that exact differentiation of work is difficult, the big idea on which the state college program is being based is improvement in the production end of agriculture while the state department's efforts will work up in general to improvement of marketing conditions. Neither institution will confine itself exclusively to either of these big needs of Georgia, better farming and better marketing, and the extensive facilities of each will serve the other in perfect co-ordination.

During the 13 years that Dr. Soule has been president of the state college, agriculture in Georgia has made immense forward strides and the seven years that Commissioner Brown has been directing the state department's efforts have shown continual and far-reaching development in agriculture. Both men agreed, however, that their joint work has hardly more than laid open the surface of the agricultural possibilities and that in their combined efforts in future results of even greater value are to be expected.

W. W. Orr Gives Ten Vital Rules In Salesmanship

Prominent Business Man Makes Talk to Emory University Students.

"Ten commandments in business salesmanship" were given Emory university students Friday morning by W. W. Orr, chairman of the board of directors of the George Mose Clothing company, in the fourth of a series of talks by Atlanta business men on commercial and industrial problems.

Speaking especially to the class in industrial organization and management Mr. Orr said the three fundamentals of business success are industry, economy and initiative. The speaker then outlined the "ten commandments" which it is necessary to observe, after the fundamentals are acquired, as follows:

1. Be agreeable. Politeness and courtesy cost nothing.
 2. Know your business. Be posted on all phases of your line.
 3. Remember names and faces. It pleases your customers.
 4. Be honest. Believe in and back up any line you enter.
 5. Don't argue; suggest. An ounce of suggestion is worth a pound of argument.
 6. Make it plain. Don't use technical terms unfamiliar to the customer.
 7. Be dependable. Nothing pleases a man more than to do what you promise him to do.
 8. Don't be egotistic. The fisherman doesn't bait his hook to please his own taste in worms.
 9. Think success. Destructive thought is your worst enemy.
 10. Be human. Laugh with your customers. If the house didn't need a man, it would send a catalog.
- The next address in the series will be given at 11:30 o'clock Tuesday morning in the law building by G. B. Baker, president and general manager of the Atlantic Ice and Coal corporation.

The Private Swiped The Colonel's Horn; Gets "Home" Sentence

The private stole the colonel's bass horn, and the colonel sent him to the penitentiary.

"So complicated? Well, let's try a new start."

David Weaver, once a regular boarder at the Salvation Army home here, and presumably one of the surprisingly few privates in an army composed of colonels and brigadier generals, appeared Thursday afternoon in recorder's court after having been charged with stealing and pawned a bass horn owned by a colonel.

When no one appeared to prosecute him, Judge Johnson "sentenced" Weaver to "go back home to Kentucky."

Louisiana Poultry Club in Atlanta On Homeward Trip

Louisiana's prize-winning Boys and Girls' Poultry club judging team was in Atlanta Friday fresh from triumphs at the annual poultry judging contest at Madison Square Garden, New York. This team, composed of Eva Mae Brooks, Elmer Puls, Joe Savage and Ora Burke, took second prize in utility judging.

Miss Elmer Wilson, Louisiana chicken expert, Harley L. Williams, in charge of Louisiana poultry work, and Allen G. Oliver, accompanied the team and were elected members of the permanent committee for arranging future national contests.

The team members were entertained here by the Southern Ruralist. The party left for Louisiana Friday afternoon.

BANK SUIT DROPPED Bennett May Collect From American Bank Owners.

For lack of prosecution, a suit brought by John B. Bennett and several other stockholders of the defunct American Bank and Trust company of Savannah against T. R. Bennett, state superintendent of banks, was dismissed by Judge Bell in Fulton superior court Friday.

temporary restraining order preventing Superintendent Bennett from taking executions against stockholders to the amount of their holdings of stock was also dissolved by the court.

Doors of the American Bank and Trust company were closed in October, 1921. When the state banking superintendent assumed charge of the bank its stockholders were assessed to the full amount of their holdings.

Know How to Be Styleful and Yet Inexpensive!

THEY'RE coming in now in a steady stream—New York's latest suits. And so different from suits of the past that they are totally captivating!

—Many of them are inclined to blouse low over the hips after the manner of the Balkan coat; then there are loose coats cut in circular style to ripple gracefully about the hips; and, of course, there is always a place in fashion for the tailor-made.

—Most of these suits are of Poirer twill, but some are of tricotine. They're trimmed with embroidery, rows of military braid and soutache braid. Some of the better suits are three-piece affairs with vari-colored silk crepe blouses.

—Colors are navy blue, black, brown, gray and wren.

—It's not a bit hard to find a suit to delight you in this assortment — and new ones are arriving every day.

Hand-Made—Some of These New

White Blouses at $1.95

SPRING debutantes! Dainty blouses of striped white dimity in slipover, button front and button back styles, and some Tuxedos. The Tuxedo blouses are hand-made and show hemstitching, embroidered dots on lace trimming. Others have pretty cross-stitch embroidery work on collar, small pocket and on the cuffs which are often than not are lace edged. These blouses are priced $1.95.

—Other hand-made blouses of fine white French voile in Tuxedo styles, showing hand-hemstitching and drawn work, embroidery and fillet and Irish crochet lace, are priced $4.95 and $5.95.

Lighter, as They Should Be

TECH AND FLORIDA TOP AUDITORIUM CARD TONIGHT

Yellow Jacket Boxing Team To Be Sent Through Bouts As Preliminary to Contest

Florida Basketball Team Is Expected to Give Tech's Quintet a Good Battle.
Freshmen Meet Gordon.

By ALBERT STATON.
Georgia Tech's basketball team and their opponents from the University of Florida will occupy the attention of Atlanta fans tonight at the Auditorium, starting at the regulation hour, 8:30 o'clock. Little is known of the Floridians, but the Yellow Jackets are expecting the worst. A fine lot of preliminary attractions has been arranged for the customers and a good crowd is looked for.

Tech is primed for the Alligators. They are somewhat mystified to know what kind of opposition to expect, but they are not fooling themselves by believing that the game will be a walkover. Any team that can hold Mover to a two-point win in Macon must have something of a basketball team. Tech has played and lost to Stetson university, which also hails from Florida. This game was played in 1919, and if the Florida team is as good as the Stetson team, and they will lift the scale of the Tech bunch.

The freshmen will play Gordon immediately before the varsity game. Atwood Wilder, captain of the freshman team, will be unable to play as he has a very sore foot, the result of a blister on the ball of his foot. Joe Eckford is being handled by a chiropractor for the same trouble and K. G. Matheson has been treated for four weeks for one. These places seem so bad as to prohibit walking on the foot. Ivan Williams, freshman football star, will probably replace Wilder, if his ankle is in shape. Wycoff was back at center Friday and may start against Gordon.

Varsity Lineups.

The varsity will line up with Jenks and Dennette at forwards, Brewster at center and Roane and Staton at guards with Matheson and Bates, forward ends; Malone, center, and Dunwoody and Moore, guards, ready for relief.

The freshmen will put Wycoff or Draper at center, Kline and Barron forwards and Williams and Brooks or Marshall at guards. The freshman game starts at 7:30 o'clock, the varsity at 8:30. The lights occur between the halves of each game, and the admission to the Auditorium will be 25 cents in the balcony and 50 cents down stairs.

Instead of the mixed wrestling and boxing program which Professor Elson planned to put on, he will have only fights, as he wants to see his wrestlers for the Monday night, when they will stake the preliminaries for the Lewis match. Chas. LeBeau, brother of Dummy LeBeau, who played guard on the Tornado in 1920-21, will be one of the contenders in the prelims Monday night, with the others uncertain as yet.

Two colored battlers will grace the fight cards to be put on along with the Tech-Florida basketball game Saturday night. "Battling" Dick, the demon pusher of the station for the Tech Pressing club, will encounter "Kid" Morrison, who is the official shoe manicurer in the Tech "Y." These boys weigh 155 pounds apiece, and will battle four rounds to a bloody finish. Battling Dick will probably get ironed for the first time in his life, judging from the record of the kid. Kid Morrison has worked as sparring partner at Walker Miller's place for several years, and lately has been serving in the same capacity for Professor Elson.

GEORGIA FIVE LOSES AGAIN

Knoxville, Tenn., February 2.—(Special).—Taking the lead at the start and never permitting Georgia to get nearer the top than a tie, the University of Tennessee basketball team tonight defeated the Bulldogs, 30 to 28, in a game replete with thrills. The Vols garnered the first basket and in the middle of the first half had gained a commanding 7-point lead over the visitors. However, the Georgia speedsters when the half ended were but 3 points in the rear.

In the second period the Bulldogs knotted the count at 18 to 18 and again at 20 to 20. From this point on, however, the Vols were not to be headed. With but a few minutes left to play and Tennessee leading by 1 point, Coach Banks replaced Beane with Bove, because of the latter's superior ability at foul shooting and a free throw had been awarded the Vols. Bove made it good but Gurr soon duplicated this feat and the lead was again but 1 point.

At this juncture Tennessee began to spar for time but when Georgia burst down the floor and forced them to open up, the result was a dazzling passing attack which netted a basket. Again the Vols killed time, and the Georgia men, in their eagerness to force the play, committed a foul. Bove made this good just as the pistol cracked ending the game. Georgia left here tonight for Lexington, Ky., where they meet Kentucky State Saturday night.

The line-up:

TENN. (30) Pos. GA. (26)
Harkness (10).....Williams (2)
Beane (10).....Butler (16)
Hatcher (8).....Bennett (6)
Johnson.....Clarke (2)
Kester.....Tennant (2)
Summons.....Tennant (2)
see, Bove (2) for Beane, Georgia.
Richardson for Butler, Butler for Richardson, Richardson for Williams.
Score, end of first period, Tennessee, 16; Georgia, 12. Time of period, 20 minutes. Foul goals, Beane, 2 out of 6; Bove, 2 out of 2; Gurr, 8 out of 12. Referee, George Barber, of Knoxville, Y. M. C. A.

Fewer Home Runs.
New York, February 2.—Home runs from balls driven into left field at Polo grounds will be rarer this year. Extension of the fence in front of the bleachers in that section from 10 to 16 feet, decided upon by the Giant management, is expected to turn back many balls that would otherwise drop among the spectators.

Leaders in Prep League Win Last Games of Half

G. M. A. Cadets Given Hard Battle by Decatur University Bluebirds Win Over Fulton.

SCHEDULE FOR TODAY.

The Saturday afternoon schedule for the beginning of the second half of the season will be played this afternoon with University vs. Commercial at 1:30 o'clock, Decatur vs. Marietta at 2:30 o'clock, High five vs. Boys' High at 3:30 o'clock and Tech High and Fulton at 4:30 o'clock.

G. M. A. and Boys' High will furnish the feature of the day. High five played a wonderful passing game Friday while the work of G. M. A. Friday was not so good.

BY ROY E. WHITE.

G. M. A. won the best game of the Friday afternoon prep schedule, which closed the first half, from the Decatur High five by a score of 25 to 21. The game was a nip and tuck affair with the cadets on the long end the majority of the time. Whenever the Decatur team would get within two or three points the Cadet offense would get going in rapid fire order and put several field goals into the hoops.

The other three games resulted in runaway affairs, University beating Fulton 49 to 11 in a lopsided game. Tech High defeated Marietta 42 to 11 in a game featured by exceptionally long shots. Boys' High won over Commercial 47 to 24. Friday afternoon gave the leaders in the point scoring of the league a chance to swell their records and several took advantage of the offer.

The G. M. A. team started with Patton scoring a field goal in the first minute of play followed by a foul shot. The Decatur team then scored one and G. M. A. was forced to extend themselves again to keep in the lead.

Decatur played the best game that the DeKalb county outfit has put up this season. The passing was a decided improvement over their last game and very few long shots were attempted. The guards came in fast on the offense and whipped the ball to the forwards who were generally open in the hole. Decatur missed many short shots. The defensive play of the Decatur team was much better than last Saturday and the Cadet five was held to only three field goals during the first half.

Walker and Owens did the scoring for Decatur while Visscher covered the Cadets. He scored only two field goals but converted nine free shots into goals out of 14 tries. He was closely guarded by the Decatur team and his two goals were made when in the midst of Decatur's defense. "Long Boy" Hern contributed 10 points to the victory by tossing five goals into the baskets.

The line-up:
G. M. A. (25) Pos. DEC. (21)
Patton (13).....Hensler (2)
Porter.....Lix, Walter (13)
Hera (10).....Owens (6)
Pearsall (2).....Visscher
Oosterhout.....McGeachy
Referee, Jones; umpire, Mims; substitutions, G. M. A., Butler for Porter.

University Wins.
University won a listless game from Fulton, 49 to 11, when every man on the university bench was given a chance to play. The score at the end of the first half was 20 to 5 with the "Bluebirds" on the long end.

The varsity started the game and played only ten minutes when the scrubs were sent in. The scrubs continued to play until the last five minutes of play when the varsity replaced them. The scrubs played almost as well as the varsity for Fulton scored only two field goals in the first half and only three in the second.

One feature of the game was the fact that Fulton was given a chance to shoot only three foul goals in the first half and only four in the second. The game was one of the cleanest of the season, less fouls being called than in any other game.

The line-up:
UNI. (49) Pos. FULTON (11)
Nunnally (12).....Bray (7)
Wilder (4).....Carroll (4)
Quarles (2).....Crissey (6)
Freeman (2).....Broadnax (2)
Broadnax (2).....Mims
Referee, Ashe; umpire, Jones; substitutions, University, Angley (2) for Nunnally, Peel (2) for Wilder, Medlin (4) for Peel, Russell for Quarles, Murray for Russell, Quarles for Murray, Nunnally for Angley, Crissey (6) for Freeman, Broadnax for Broadnax, Freeman for Crissey, Broadnax for Boswell; Fulton, Chamber for Alsbrook, Stephenson for Mims, Rogers for Stephens.

"ALEX" AND "KID" TRANSFER TO TERRACE

Change of address:
Mr. A. Alexander, and Mr. Robert Alva Clay, Georgia Tech coaches, have moved their personal belongings—all that George Griffin and Felton McConnell did not swipe—to the Georgian Terrace.

For many years, "Alex" and "Kid" have held down a place somewhere on the campus. For the last few years they have dwelt in the Tech "Y." As time went on, they felt the need of more luxurious quarters and of someone to watch over their growing needs, so they have given the school the slip and hied themselves to the Georgian Terrace where they expect to dwell in peace and comfort forevermore.

The reason for this move is obvious. It would seem on the face of it that it would cost them more, but it is really a measure of economy. So good natured this pair, that the boys even got in the habit of wearing their clothes, and they could never tell when they came home at night whether they would have clothes to wear or not. Now they can rest assured that when they buy a pair of socks, they will get to wear them at least twice.

Their office will remain at the "Y," in charge of George Griffin and Felton McConnell, who occupy the quarters left vacant by the departure of our distinguished athletic mentors.

JOHN DUNDEE EASY WINNER

BY WESTBROOK PEGLER.
United News Staff Correspondent.
Madison Square Garden, New York, February 2.—Elmo Flores, the Filipino lightweight, took a fierce lambasting from Johnny Dundee, holder of the so-called junior lightweight championship, in the garden ring Friday night.

Flores fell to the floor twice in the thirteenth round and twice again in the fifteenth. Dundee, with a show of sportsmanship rarely to be seen in pugilism, permitted Flores to stagger through most of the fifteenth round, after flooring him for the third time. The little brown boy was drunk from punching and unable to defend himself.

Ten thousand fans shrieked for a knockout, however, and Dundee responded by clubbing Flores to the floor a fourth time. When Flores had the courage to arise after another count of nine Dundee refused to hit with all his strength and was cuffing him easily as the final bell overtook them.

Dundee, a boxing master compared to Flores and clouted him severely from the sixth round to the finish. All that Flores lauded were a few rights on the chin, a couple of which jolted the little Italian but did not retard his speed. The first knockdown in the thirteenth was brought about by a stout left hook on the chin. Flores came up after taking a count and after a little sparring was spilled again with a left under the wishbone. The third knockdown came from a sudden left to the jaw and the fourth fall was due partly to the brown boy's weariness, partly to a general fire of clouts at the face and body.

How the U. S. Feels About the Money Britain Owes Us

The most useful results which could follow the visit of the British Debt Funding Commission to these shores, in the opinion of the New York Globe, would be "a better realization by Americans of the economic problems to be faced by other countries if large annual payments are made" and it thinks that Stanley Baldwin, British Chancellor of the Exchequer, "used no idle rhetoric" when he said that "the settlement we make here will determine the condition and material welfare of the great mass of wage earners in both Great Britain and the United States, and their wives and children." Several editors take issue with Mr. Baldwin's statement that "every cent used for the purchase of goods was spent in America," the New York Journal of Commerce declaring on the contrary "that some of the money (it has been estimated at a billion and a half) was used in keeping the value of the British pound stable in the market."

One of the very interesting news-features in The Literary Digest this week, February 3d, deals with the subject of Britain's War Debt to us and presents in easily understood form the mass of conflicting opinion upon what has been termed "the most complicated economic problem which the two leading nations of the world ever faced."

MERCER AND A. A. C. WILL BATTLE TONIGHT IN MACON

Injuries of Mercer Stars Expected to Hurt Chances Of Central Georgia Team

Joe Bean, Coach of Atlanta Clubmen, Will Take Along Plenty of Reserves, As He Looks For Hard Struggle.

BY CLIFF WHEATLEY.
The "Battle of the Century" or something might close to it is scheduled for the Municipal Auditorium at Macon tonight when Joe Bean's Atlanta Athletic club basketball team take on the Mercer university quintet.
The affair has been smoldering up until this time when the Capital City of Georgia and the would-be holder of that distinction, basketball fans are watching this game as the test between two of the greatest teams ever produced in the southland.
Games between the A. A. C. and Mercer are always interesting. Both usually possess combinations of championship calibre and run-away match-ups between the old opponents are exceptional. There are many features that add to the interest in tonight's struggle.
Intense feeling cropped up when the clubs met earlier in the season in Atlanta. At that time the locals were victorious by a 1-point margin after a heart-rending encounter in which the Mercerians put everything they had, leaving little to throw against later opponents.
Dissatisfaction over decisions made by Referee Ashe was expressed by Mercer supporters. Their claims were voiced in the public prints, leading on until at this time there is more real interest in the outcome of this game than in any court engagement since Georgia and Tech met in the semi-finals of the 1921 intercollegiate tournament.

Mercer's Claims.
Mercer adherents have claimed since the first meeting of these rivals that their team clearly outplayed the local quintet, to lose only because too many fouls were called against their heroes. A. A. C. rosters declare that the home team was badly off from against Mercer and is out to earn a decisive victory this time.
The arguments have waxed so warmly that one of the largest crowds that has ever witnessed a basketball game in the south will turn out for the game. Reports from Macon indicate that practically every reserved seat in the auditorium has been disposed of and that the S. R. O. sign will be flapping in the air long before the game gets under way.
Certainly the spectators will not be disappointed in the entertainment to be offered. The keenest critic of the game can work with the dope any way he chooses and will be able to say nothing further than that the breaks will decide the issue. The clubs are simply too evenly matched to warrant any other conclusion.
Each outfit has worked hard for the game. Defeated in their last start, the Beamen have spent a busy week in preparing for the comeback. Mercer returned early in the week from her eastern invasion and has recovered from the effects of that long journey. The teams should be in excellent condition for one of the hardest games of the season. Knowing a bit of the other's stuff, each has spent much time working out a system of breaking up offensive moves and the chances are that fewer points will be scored than in the first game between the two.
The Atlanta squad will leave at noon. Joe Bean stated last night that it was his plan to carry along many reserves, as he expects to have use for all of them. The team that he will start against the Mercerians has proved its worth in game after game. Graves and Sullivan.

The guards will be Captain Johnny Graves and "Scrappy" Sullivan. These players will compare favorably with any in the country. Tom Bryan will start at center, but Gibby Frazer and perhaps one or two additional pivot men will be on hand. Joe Singleton and Rufus Bass will be Bean's forwards.
The club's biggest job is to stop George Harmon. There is a possibility that this little wizard will not be the titan he was in the game at the local Auditorium. He has been ill for more than a week, illness developing toward the end of Mercer's eastern jaunt.
He worked yesterday with his mates for the first time this week and reports from Macon say the youngster is far being at his best form. Should Harmon prove physically unable to carry the burden that is sure to be put on his shoulders, the Atlanta quintet will rule favorite, otherwise the Beamen are doped to lose by most observers.

HARD WORKOUT FOR MERCERIANS.

Macon, Ga., February 2.—(Special.)—Mercer concluded practice this afternoon for the return game here tomorrow night with the Atlanta Athletic club. George Harmon, whose illness had kept him away from practice, could not stay out of the A. A. C. game but frankly admitted that no contest would have pulled him out this week.
Coach Cooley surprised the squad this afternoon by sending the men through a fast scrimmage. Usually, shooting practice is the program the day preceding a game.
Mercer will present a line-up weaker than that which faced the club in Atlanta. Emmett Pope, regular forward, and Smokey Harper, captain of the 1922 team, will be out of the game for fully ten days longer.
Red Simmons, star tackle on the football team, is expected to start at center in place of Captain Bob Gamble, who may not be used during the game. Simmons has shown wonderful improvement this season. He is 6 feet, 4 inches tall and weighs close to 200, making him an ideal pivot man. Wilkes and Smith will be at forward while Harmon and McWilliams will play the guards. The largest crowd of the season is expected to turn out for the A. A. C. game.

Richard's Bond Returned.
New York, February 2.—The $25,000 bond which George L. ("Tex") Rickard, the fight promoter, had furnished for his appearance to answer charges of improper relations with little girls, was refunded Friday. Rickard's counsel is expected to move now for dismissal of the three indictments and thus formally clear the promoter's name.

TWO BATTLES FOR DEMPSEY

New York, February 2.—The chances of Jack Dempsey defending his world's heavyweight championship title this summer today hinged apparently on the decision of Jack Kearns, his manager, on an offer from Tom O'Rourke, Republic A. C. matchmaker. O'Rourke proposed, after Tex Rickard said he was out of it, that Dempsey be matched against Harry Wills, negro challenger, and Joe Beckett, English challenger. He offered to stage the two bouts at the Polo grounds, the first to be held on the fourth of July and the other, providing Beckett defeats Carpenter, of France, on Labor Day.
Kearns told O'Rourke he would have an answer ready Monday. O'Rourke proposed to pay the champion $500,000 for the two bouts.
Rickard, who had been talking about promoting a match between Champion Jack Dempsey and several of numerous aspirants, formally announced his withdrawal yesterday. Chairman William Muldoon, of the state boxing commission, said he suggested that Rickard get out, and that he would suggest to other individuals that they form a line behind the tail Texas.
Rickard said he got out because he felt that the public wouldn't support a title fight.
The net result so far seems to be that Dempsey is ready to fight but that he may not get a chance to.
Jesse Willard seemed to be out of the reckoning, although one report had it that he expected soon to start a country-wide exhibition tour to demonstrate his fitness for a bout with the champion.
Kearns did not seem disturbed over Rickard's withdrawal. He said he would be glad to consider any and all bids.
"Who you goin' to fight next?" some of the fans who watched Dempsey work out in Madison Square Garden during the afternoon called to the champion.
Jack grinned. "Oh, I'll fight 'em all," he said, and continued his shadow boxing.

LIKED SWIMMING, SO HE BECAME A MARINE

BY CASSIUS R. BAUMGARS.
Young men of Atlanta and vicinity are showing a sudden interest in swimming and other water sports, according to a statement made Friday by Captain George Bower, U. S. M. C. in charge of the local recruiting station in the postoffice building.
Whether the lure of the salt water and all year round swimming or the balmy days of spring weather which this section is having incites them to dreams of action in the water, Captain Bower was unable to say.
But it's a fact that the love of baseball, football, basketball and other sports have been the cause of many young men of this section joining the marines in the past. The writer questioned one young man Friday as to his reason. He was entering in order to take up swimming.
"You see, sergeant," he said, "out my way, all we have is a little swimming hole, and then we have to wait for the warm days to come before we can swim."
The figure that by joining the marines he'll be able to go swimming at any time in the year, and besides I want to see the ocean that all these people say is so wonderful."
That man passed the examination and his wishes will be fulfilled as soon as he finishes his recruit training, as he is likely to see service in the tropics. The marines are going to have a crack swimming team. All these would-be swimmers from Georgia will only take to the water as they do to everything.

CALLAHAN NAMED COACH AT DECATUR

W. E. Callahan, former Meridian college (Meridian, Miss.) halfback and quarterback, has been appointed as coach of the Decatur High boys basketball team, succeeding W. J. Boswell, who will devote all of his time to the girls' team.
Boswell has been coaching with the help of Callahan for the past two years at Decatur but the work was too much and he has decided to turn the boys over to Callahan.
Callahan coached Decatur High football backfield last season and turned out a winning combination. Since that time he has been working with Boswell in coaching the boys in basketball. He took active charge of the boys several days ago and the team showed an improvement in the game Friday afternoon.
Callahan played quarterback and halfback for three years on the Meridian college eleven during the seasons of 1918, 1919 and 1920. He has been teaching at Decatur for the past two years.
Both coaches welcomed the change, which gave Boswell a little breathing spell. His duties have been very heavy as both the boys' and girls' team play every Friday afternoon.

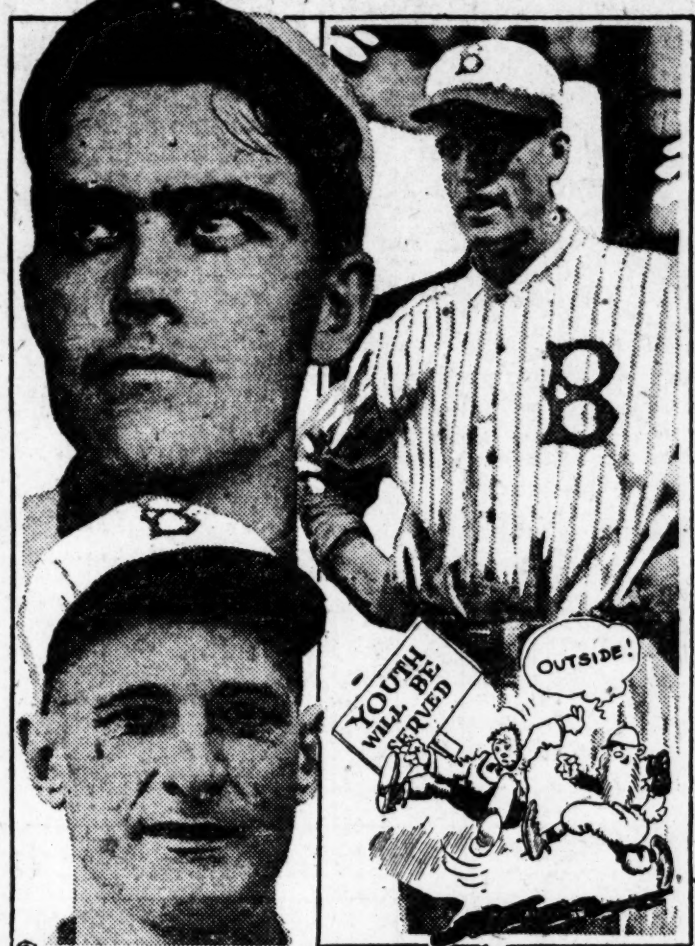

SUNDAY SCHOOL TEAMS TO BE BUSY TONIGHT

Babe Adams Is Granddaddy Of Big League Ball Players

Above, Babe Adams, at left, and Jake Daubert, second oldest player. Below, Ivan Olson, third oldest player.

BY NORMAN E. BROWN.
Babe Adams says he wants to quit the Pirates. Says he has a good offer to play independent ball around his home in Wisconsin. Barney Dreyfuss says he doesn't want Babe to go. The old team wouldn't seem the same without Charles Benjamin Adams.
That's the latest about this desire of Babe's. But his announced ambition to quit the big league game brings attention to the fact that his passing—if it occurs—will remove the oldest player in the big show.
Babe Adams, the granddaddy of all National and American league players—if the ages they give in the record books are accepted. There may be a gray-haired bird lurking in the big show who refrains from showing Babe out of first position. But this story won't bring them in.
On May 18 Babe will hit the forty mark. According to the dope at hand he was born on that date in 1883 in the quiet little town of Orono, Ind.

Jake Nearest Rival.
Jake Daubert and Ivan Olson are the Babe's nearest rivals in age. Oddly enough both are in the National league. Babe lacks four days of being two years older than Jake and is two and a half years older than Ivan the Terrible, who was born October 14, 1885.
That the oldest player in point of years in the big show, should at a pitching hole, and in himself, Babe, while rising to the top of the veterans' list, has had to pitch ball good enough for the big show over a span of nineteen years, a wonderful record.
Babe started to pitch big league ball the year he started to vote, 1904.

Kearns Hints of Transfer To Mexico for Big Bout

Chairman Muldoon, of New York Commission, Officially Frowns on Wills-Dempsey Bout.

New York, February 2.—Jack Dempsey's chances of defending his heavyweight title this year, at least in New York state, were reduced to a minimum today as a result of the decision of William Muldoon, chairman of the state athletic commission, not to permit contests with the two men regarded as leading challengers, Harry Wills, negro, and a Dempsey-Willard bout in New York state, he said, would be detrimental to the boxing game.
On the surface it appeared that Muldoon's edict would eliminate the only definite fight proposition now being considered by Dempsey—an offer by Tom O'Rourke, Polo grounds matchmaker, for a bout this summer with Wills and Joe Beckett, O'Rourke and Kearns, however, denied the bid had been withdrawn.
Kearns has promised to give O'Rourke an answer Monday. If it was rejected, O'Rourke said, he would make no further bid for a match.
Muldoon's attitude toward Wills because of the commissioner's previous insistence that the negro's challenge, which resulted in the signing of a tentative agreement with Dempsey six months ago, be recognized. He pointed out, however, that no promoter had shown him a bonafide proposal for such a match and that he would regard the negro's challenge as eliminated from further consideration.

Not Discouraged.
Meanwhile neither Willard, who has been in New York for several weeks seeking to sign with Dempsey, nor Kearns, appeared discouraged by obstacles set in the path of heavyweight title matches this year.
Kearns reiterated his desire for a bout with both Wills and Willard and hinted that an effort might be made to stage one or both at Tia Juan, Mexico, just across the California border. It is not successful in signing for a fight, he said, Dempsey might turn to motion pictures for occupation.
Willard, after resting for several days as a result of a mild case of grippe, engaged this afternoon in a strenuous gymnasium workout. He announced he would go ahead with plans for a country-wide exhibition tour and possibly a match or two with other heavyweight contenders, in an effort to prove his fitness for a return bout with Dempsey.
Tex Rickard, who yesterday withdrew from the field of bidders for a title match because of his belief that the public was not ready now to support any particular contest, emphasized today that his action applied only to the present situation.

"I am not out of the bidding of 1923 by any means," Rickard declared. "I will seek to match Dempsey with Willard or any other suitable opponent as soon as I am convinced the match will have proper support."
Rickard added that his decision would not alter plans he had made to match Dempsey with Louis Firpo, South American heavyweight champion, if the Argentinian defeated Bill Brennan in a match scheduled at Madison Square Garden March 12.

TECH NEEDS WEIGHT MAN

BY AL STATON.
It was learned yesterday that Henry Granger, captain of the 1922 track team at Tech and one of the best weight men in the south, will be unable to participate in track athletics this year because he did not re-enter school in time.
Henry dropped out in the fall, but it was hoped that he would return for the second term. The second term has rolled around, however, and he has not re-entered and will therefore be lost to the team. When interviewed on the subject he said that selling Minter homes was too lucrative a proposition to come back and fight the faculty for a dip.
Henry's loss will be felt for it leaves Tech without a good discus thrower and only one good man in the shot-put and the javelin. Handsome Felton McConnell, the Sheik of Peters Park, expects to fill Henry's shoes.
We admit that he can more than fill his shoes but whether he can throw the discus as far is another matter. However, Felton tossed the disc 114 feet last year, taking second place in the S. I. A. A. meet, but was ineligible due to the fact that he was a freshman.
Cotton, Cureton and Teasley are the other men lost to the track team. Cotton remained at home this year, Cureton went to Yale and Teasley to the University of Pennsylvania. Cotton ran the mile and two-mile, Cureton the half and the mile, while Teasley sprinted the 440 yards.
Walt Godwin, sub-quarter on the football team, has announced that he will endeavor to replace Teasley in the quarter, and will report to practice with the rest of the track squad on Monday, February 5.

Mrs. Mallory Defeats.
New York, February 2.—Mrs. Molly B. Burdett Mallory, national women's tennis champion, defaulted to Miss Lillian Scherman, of New York, in the semi-final round today of the Heights Casino invitation singles tournament. A severe cold, from which she has been suffering for several days, caused the withdrawal.

ANOTHER NET BODY FORMED

Baltimore, Md., February 2.—The United States Lawn Tennis association at its meeting in New York tomorrow will be asked to grant a charter to the Middle Atlantic Lawn Tennis association, an organization formed here today by representatives of 20 clubs from Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland and the District of Columbia. All clubs are members of the national organization.
Election of officers, formation of the new organization and appointment of a committee to apply to the governing body for a charter was the chief business transacted at today's meeting. A committee also was appointed to prepare the constitution and by-laws for the newly organized body.
It was stated that special committees would be appointed later for the purpose of getting additional clubs in the middle Atlantic district to join the new federation. Plans also will be completed for the holding of match and elimination tournaments under the jurisdiction of this body.

Officers Chosen at Today's Meeting.
W. C. Hellen, Chevy Chase Country club, president; Charles F. McIntosh, Country club, Norfolk, vice president; John A. Magee, Baltimore Country club, secretary; and J. M. Cecil, Virginia Country club, Richmond, treasurer.
In addition to the above named men, three others were named to constitute the executive board. They are: Charles B. Buchanan, Baltimore Country club; Nathan A. Bundy, Country club, Norfolk, and A. V. Leach, Columbia Country club, Washington.

RESERVE BANK OUTFIT WINS GOOD STRUGGLE

Federal Reserve bank defeated the strong team of Davison-Paxon-Stokes company by a score of 35 to 23. Federal Reserve bank walked away in the first quarter the score being 13 to 4, but Davison-Paxon-Stokes came back strong and at the end of the first half the score was 24 to 22. Both teams fought hard and the game was very fast and interesting.

Jackson High Wins.

Jackson, Ga., February 2.—(Special.)—The comeback of the Jackson High school here tonight was too much for their opponents from the Forsyth High school and the locals were returned winners 13 to 12 in one of the hardest fought basketball games staged in this city in years. Forsyth was leading 8-6 at the end of the first half.

J. WEISSMULLER BREAKS MORE RECORDS

Chicago, February 2.—Johnny Weissmuller, a consistent breaker of world's swimming records, contesting under the colors of the Illinois Athletic club here last night at the Central A. A. U. championship meet, removed the only blot from his record by regaining the world's title in the 440-yard event in a 60-foot pool.
He clipped 12 1-5 seconds from the mark set by Richard Howell, a Chicago high school boy, who lowered Weissmuller's previous world's record of 5:03 3-5 for the 440 yards in recent competition with Norman Ross.
As a starter for the evening Weissmuller broke his own world's mark of 5:46 4-5 in the 500-yard swim in a 60-foot pool, lowering it 4 4-5 seconds. He was the outstanding performer in the meet. Weissmuller has not failed to break a world's record in any of the officially-timed swimming meets here in recent months. Usually the records were previously established by him.

Track Meet Tonight.

Boston, February 2.—The star athletes who made new records in Wednesday night's meet at Madison Square Garden, New York, will try for new and finer marks in the Boston Athletic association's meet Saturday night.

The Constitution's Novel-a-Week Too Many Crooks

BY E. J. RATH

Next Week, "The Mantle of Silence"
By E. J. Rath

"He hasn't a chance to escape 'em if he goes that way," he said brutally. "Or any other way, for that matter. They're got the house surrounded. They'll be in in a minute."

Charlotte clenched her hands together.

"Help him! Save him!" she pleaded. "Oh, Marshall, don't you understand? He'll be caught—caught!"

"Say, Charlotte, I never saw you so fussed up in your life. Not even when you went swimming with your best dress on. You don't have to worry about this bird over in the window."

Blackstone looked at Wright and deliberately winked.

"The police don't want him," added the lawyer. "He's not even a crook."

Charlotte stopped breathing for several seconds as she turned slowly and stared at the figure in the window.

"Not—even—a-crook," she echoed faintly.

"Certainly not," said Blackstone. "Come back into the room, old man, and shrive yourself. The jig's up."

To the positive horror of Charlotte, Bidwell Wright laughed, closed the window again and walked toward her. She shrank from him. A monument was tottering on its high pedestal.

"Not a crook?" she repeated dully.

Archaeological Notes.
Scientific American.

Ancient Carthage in the Hands of Speculators.—The site of ancient Carthage is being sold off and divided into building lots, and the surrounding hills, rich in history, are being slowly covered with residential villas.

Excavation on the Sea of Galilee.—Part of an ancient wall and columns belonging to the ancient city of Tiberias on the Sea of Galilee have been recently recovered. As soon as the ruins were discovered expert archaeologists were summoned and the excavations will be carried out under scientific control. It was near this city that Jesus preached his Sermon on the Mount, and Mary Magdalene is believed to have come from a nearby town.

Carving on Lebanon.—On the face of a cliff in the Lebanon hills Ramesses II, king of Egypt, well over 3,000 years ago ordered his stone carvers to inscribe a tablet setting forth his conquest of the land. The figures of the ancient Egyptian ruler and his men still are visible. A few feet away one may see, carved in the same rock by a British stone carver, the figures of the coming in September, 1918, of Field Marshal Sir Edmund H. H. Allenby, G. C. B., commander of the allied forces in Asia Minor. The passage of the centuries from B. C. 1300 to A. D. 1918 is recorded by a dozen other carvings, each describing the march of a victorious army.

The Origin of the Swastika Symbol.
The subject of the origin of the swastika symbol has given rise to protracted controversy. The latest contribution to the question is that of Harit Krishna Deb in the Journal of the Asiatic Society, Bengal. He suggests that it is a modification of the mode of expressing the ancient Hindu syllable Om, which is used in religious rites. This, a potsherd with square ends, was stipulated, one across the other, to form the Swastika, meaning "bringer of blessings," which goes back to India to the seventh century, when it was used as a cuttlebone. Another reference is well before 528 B. C. It is found on gold leaf on a vase with reliefs of Buddha, and it appears on the Edicts of Asoka (273-232 B. C.). The earliest example known is on a spindle whorl from the third city of Troy, about 1800 B. C., and it is frequently in Greek vases about 600 B. C.

Cleaner for Windshield.

A simple and efficient cleaner which is fastened to the windshield and has a wiper on each side of the glass is described with illustration in the February Popular Mechanics Magazine. It is operated only when the driver pulls on a strap hanging near the steering wheel. The wipers then make a sweep, forward and backward, after which they are stationary until the strap is pulled again.

A drydock 1,020 feet long, with an entrance 111 feet wide that will accommodate vessels with a draft up to 44 feet, will be the largest in France when completed.

Elephants know instinctively whether a floor will bear their weight, and have been used in testing a newly constructed one to prove its safety because they refuse to venture on it if it is the least unsafe.

A countess of the court of Henry VIII was obliged, by rules of etiquette, to have a train before and behind, which she hung upon her arm or fastened in her circle.

Mrs. Joseph Gatins Is Honored At Beautiful Spring Luncheon

One of the lovely events of Friday was the luncheon which Mrs. Albert Thon, Jr., gave at her home on East Fifth street in honor of Mrs. Joseph Gatins, of Paris, who will remain at the Georgian Terrace until early spring.

Thirty-six guests were entertained. The handsome Thon home was decorated with spring blossoms and flowering plants.

The luncheon table was covered with a Venetian flit cloth and held in the center a jar of Italian pottery filled with heather, violets, jonquils, roses, hyacinths and freesias.

The lovely hostess received her guests in a dress of black crepe georgette combined with a waist of blue beaded in blue and bronze beads.

She was assisted by her mother, Mrs. Edward McCandless.

Mrs. Gatins wore a French frock of black velvet with a wide picture hat also of black velvet.

Miss Friedman Returns to City To Speak on Industrial Work

Interest centers in the return of Miss Ernestine Friedman, executive secretary of the Bryn Mawr college summer school for industrial workers, who arrived in Atlanta Friday night to spend several days here in speaking to groups of girls and women on the program that the summer school is offering industrial girls.

Miss Friedman during the world war was supervisor of war work for the National War Work Council, Y. W. C. A. for the South Atlantic states.

Locally, she worked with the war work council in its supervision of the Camp Gordon hostess house; also with the directors of the local Y. W. C. A. Saturday Miss Friedman will speak to the garment makers' union at the Labor Temple and later to the Y. W. C. A. industrial committee at "Y" headquarters, Peachtree Arcade.

During her stay she will speak to the students at Agnes Scott college, to the League of Women Voters, to the local representatives of Bryn Mawr and to other groups.

Following the war, the national board Y. W. C. A., New York headquarters, sent Miss Friedman to Europe and the Orient to investigate industrial conditions among girls and women. Her life's work has been devoted to the world-wide interests of girls and women.

The monthly meeting of the T. E. L. class of the Druid Hills Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. William B. Reeves, 195 North Morland avenue, Tuesday morning, January 30, with a very large attendance.

There were splendid reports from the different committees of work done during the month, and quite a bit of new business taken up. These meetings, which combine both social and business features, are proving quite interesting and enjoyable to the ladies of this splendid Sunday school class.

Mrs. Rose M. Ashby To Lecture on Coue.

Mrs. Rose M. Ashby, psychologist, will lecture Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the mahogany room of the Ansley hotel, on "The Methods Used by Emile Coue in Feeling."

Mrs. Ashby has done special research on this subject and will illustrate the general formula of suggestion and the law of reversed effort which are given such emphasis in Coue's teachings.

Both men and women who are interested are invited to attend this lecture.

Parent-Teacher Work Discussed In 8th District

Athens, Ga., February 2.—(Special.)—Georgia's progress in Parent-Teacher work was discussed by Mrs. Bruce Carr Jones, of Macon, state president, at the eighth district meeting held here Friday.

Monroe was selected as the next meeting place for the district association, of which Mrs. Boyce Ficklin, Jr., of Washington, is president. The committee on time and place was composed of Mrs. Orrin Roberts, Monroe; Mrs. A. S. Kelton, Hartwell; Mrs. Gabriel Toombs, Washington; Mrs. M. A. McDowell, Madison. Resolutions were adopted commending the Athens association for the hospitable treatment of the delegates and the state college of agriculture, where the convention was held.

Mrs. Jones declared that reports from one-half of the Parent-Teacher association in the state showed that $32,734.04 was raised and spent in interest of child welfare in Georgia during 1921-22.

The speaker declared the greatest interest was along the lines of health. Among some of the notable accomplishments of associations were establishment of health clinics, nutrition classes, fresh air classes for pupils with tubercular tendencies, equipment of 94 libraries, supplied 58 playgrounds with equipment, installed money savings systems, put over bond issues for new buildings. Hundreds of things were done in addition to the above named.

She pointed out that Macon schools saved $10,200.94 the last term.

Mrs. Jones named the five aims of the association: Organization and efficiency, public welfare, education, home service, public health.

Mrs. Clifford Walker, of Monroe, Mrs. Louis Johnson, of Athens; Mrs. Annie Mae Bryant, Mrs. Phil Campbell and Mrs. Lamar Scott, of Athens, were speakers at the afternoon session.

Atlantans Leave For Florida.

John W. Mangham, Sr., David Boyd Mangham and Eugene C. Clarke, Jr., will leave Saturday morning for Florida. They will be joined in Jacksonville by Mrs. John W. Mangham, who will motor with them to Orlando and they will spend the first week of February in Tampa when Gasparilla will be celebrated.

The coronation ball will take place February 6 and the wedding of Miss Vallie Bringenheimer and John W. Mangham, Jr., will be an event of social importance taking place at high noon February 8 at St. Andrew's Episcopal church.

Mrs. Rose M. Ashby To Lecture on Coue.

Mrs. Rose M. Ashby, psychologist, will lecture Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock in the mahogany room of the Ansley hotel, on "The Methods Used by Emile Coue in Feeling."

Both men and women who are interested are invited to attend this lecture.

Mrs. Motley and Mrs. Dunbar Honored at Bridge Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Motley, of Kansas City, Mo., who have recently come to Atlanta to make their home, are at the Georgian Terrace.

Mrs. Motley is receiving many social compliments by way of welcome to Atlanta.

One of the large affairs given during the week was the afternoon tea given Tuesday by Mrs. George Gland and at which 100 guests were entertained.

Mrs. Ivan Allen complimented Mrs. Motley and Mrs. Clement Evans Dunbar, who have been visiting Mrs. Martin Dunbar, at bridge Friday afternoon at her home on West Peachtree street. Twelve guests were assembled. Mrs. Allen received her guests in a lovely gown of dark blue georgette brocade in velvet. Mrs. Dunbar wore a lovely gown of grey chiffon velvet.

Emory Woman's Club Is Honored At Atlanta Woman's Club

The Emory Woman's club was entertained at the Atlanta Woman's club Friday afternoon, when four associate members invited the entire membership to tea in honor of Mrs. W. F. Mellon, the president.

The hostesses were Mrs. W. W. Anderson, Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, Mrs. J. Calhoun McDougall and Mrs. Omar F. Elder.

The long table where the guests were seated was attractively decorated with gold and blue, Emory colors; the mints and sweets also were carried out in the same color scheme.

Mrs. Alonzo Richardson acted as toastmistress and many happy thoughts and good wishes for the honor guests found expression in the merry little speeches and toasts which were offered.

Covers were laid for Mrs. W. F. Mellon, Mrs. Warren A. Gandler, Mrs. Photo Durham, Mrs. George Bachman, Mrs. Baker, Mrs. C. E. Boyd, Mrs. George Boyd, Mrs. H. W. Cox, Mrs. N. A. Gooden, Mrs. J. S. Mrs. Gottschaldt Is Honored.

Mrs. Allan Gottschaldt, who will leave for her home in Baltimore Sunday, after a visit of several weeks in Atlanta with her mother, Mrs. W. H. Smith, on East Seventeenth street, was the guest of honor at a tea Friday afternoon. Mrs. Smith assembled the hostesses who have entertained in Mrs. Gottschaldt's honor during her Atlanta visit.

Twenty guests were invited.

Mrs. Smith's lovely gown was of gray-blue Canton crepe.

Mrs. Gottschaldt wore a dress of blue georgette with elaborate bead trimming.

BACK ACHED TERRIBLY

Mrs. Robinson Tells How She Found Relief by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Amarillo, Tex.—"My back was my greatest trouble. It would ache so it would almost kill me and I would have cramps. I suffered in this way about three years; then a lady friend suggested that I try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had better health since, keep house and am able to do my work. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends as it has certainly given me great relief."

—Mrs. C. E. ROBINSON, 608 N. Lincoln St., Amarillo, Texas.

The Vegetable Compound is a splendid medicine for women. It relieves the troubles which cause such symptoms as backache, painful times, irregularity, tired and worn-out feelings and nervousness. This is shown again and again by such letters as Mrs. Robinson writes as well as by one woman telling another. These women know what it did for them. It is surely worth your trial.

Housewives make a great mistake in allowing themselves to become so ill that it is well-nigh impossible for them to attend to their necessary household duties.

Important Meeting Held By Atlanta City Federation

BY BESSIE SHAW STAFFORD.

The Atlanta City Federation of Women's Clubs has fostered the following interesting projects during the past four months, namely: Red Cross roll call, Armistice day, Poppy day, Wesley Memorial hospital, placed the spring and fall clean-up days on the city of Atlanta's calendar, West Point industrial fund, Abbeys, Tallulah Falls industrial school, students aid foundation fund, called attention to pledges for the educational work of the federation, anti-tuberculosis campaign, Joel Chandler Harris birthday, soldier activities, community Christmas, education week with closer co-operation and relation between home, teachers and schools, Christmas carols for the benefit of the Georgia Children's Home and five-day drive, so reported Mrs. T. Stevens, president of the organization, at the meeting held Friday morning at 10 o'clock in the chamber of commerce. In his opening address, Mrs. Stevens stated that the womanhood of Atlanta is being drawn closer together in the federation work, the best of the state, better films urged all of the members to support one another in order to accomplish service, the greatest factor in club life.

Honor Guests.

A chapter from the Scripture, read by Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, the singing of one verse of "America," and the reading of the constitution, were the opening features of the morning's program. Special guests of honor included Mrs. O. A. Granger, past president of the state federation, Mrs. H. B. Wey, state chairman, the students aid foundation, The secretary, Mrs. H. G. Hastings, read the minutes of the executive board, which met last Friday, January 26, and at which important resolutions were adopted and the organization of a body after being presented by Mrs. W. L. Perry, chairman of resolutions, including the organization of a women's bureau of the federation to have supervision over delinquent women and girls, introduced by Mrs. Frank Logan. The proposed bureau will be patterned after one now in practice in Washington, which was endorsed by the last convention of police chiefs of America.

Mrs. R. M. Striplin, chairman of the federation, Mrs. T. T. Stevens and Mrs. W. P. Price-Smith appeared recently before Mayor Sims, who approved of the proposed bureau. Following are the resolutions: To strictly enforce the law prohibiting big bright lights on autos as a means of safeguarding life and limb; to prohibit indiscriminate sale of fireworks, which have occasioned several cases of tetanus recently; to carry into effect laws aimed at elimination of the smoke nuisance; pledged assistance to the Stone Mountain Memorial; junior thrift plans, which have been endorsed by the applied education and home economics departments of the general federation; enforcement of laws in taking better care in cleaning lawns and streets; the placing of radiators in Atlanta hospitals for the entertainment of the shut-ins, and the improvement of the Towner-Sterling building, which makes the department of education a part of the president's cabinet.

A resolution which recommended the club news of the day be handled under the joint plan of retaining The Constitution as official organ and of distributing all club news on all papers of the state was carried by a considerable length and laid on the table. Miss Corinne Chisolm reported on the Girl Scouts, in the absence of Mrs. Frank D. Holland, president of the association, and stated that in the 18 months it has been founded headquarters had been established, Mrs. Albert E. Thornton had presented a portrait of the youngest club in the federation, several hundred dollars and a sum of $300 had been donated by the junior league. The entire budget amounted to $1,500, there were 30 troops, with a membership of 560 girls, with the cost per member of something less than $3. On Tuesday, February 6, the junior league will present ribbons to 70 girls who have given their mothers 500 hours of home service during the past year. A camp is being planned for the Girl Scouts, which will include the mothers and girls as guests.

New Members.

Two new clubs, the Georgia Tech Woman's club, represented by the president, Mrs. J. M. Smith, and the North Carolina society, represented by Mrs. D. F. Stevenson, were announced as members of the federation. The existence of a welfare, better films and Americanization committee in each association. Mrs. McCormack has visited 36 of the associations and the association of Mrs. C. C. Pluge, of East Lake P. T. A., reported that the most unique phase of the school was the student government, introduced by the children, and said to be the only one in the grammar schools. The association sponsors an entertainment once a month and the children are raised to carry on the program of the club. Forrest Avenue P. T. A. was represented by Mrs. Milton Ailes, who reported a membership of 102, with 52 of those attending the school. She reported $535 in the treasury, with $243 to be expended for the betterment of the school. $25 to go to Tallulah Falls Industrial school, and $75.50 spent on Mrs. A. T. Wise's campaign. Over $80 was realized on hot soup served to the children. Mrs. Howard McCutcheon, of Fraser P. T. A., reported that from 35 to 40 free lunches were served daily to the children and the association averaged 100 members. A report of $25 to the Tallulah Industrial school was made by Mrs. C. C. Whitaker, of Highland P. T. A., who also announced a national to the Red Cross. Tenth Street P. T. A. was represented by Mrs. E. D. McDonald, who told of the hospital wherein garments were given needy children, other districts, and announced that all children of the school would be provided.

Mrs. H. B. Wey, state chairman of P. T. A., reports emphasized the progress in education, as first noted when she was a member many years ago of the lady board of visitors. Mrs. W. P. Price-Smith reported $100 donated for the Tallulah Falls Industrial school by the East Point Woman's club.

Red Cross Roll-Call. Mrs. John M. Slaton, Red Cross roll-call chairman, reported $9,352 through the club quota, and $8,193 through the club quota. The treasurer's report was read by Mrs. Willis Ragan. Mrs. H. M. Nichols, state federation chairman, looking after the welfare of the club, carried a portrait of Mrs. Wey being hung in the room adopted by the federation in honor of the chairman, at the University of Georgia.

The College Park Woman's club was represented by Mrs. B. D. Gray, who stated that six girls had been awarded Cox college scholarships through this club and the Robert Lee chapter. This club has a membership of 125, and there is $700 in bank toward erecting a clubhouse, and when $1,000 is reached plans will be made to begin this work. She also reported as educational chairman of the club a gift of $100 to the Tallulah Falls school, to be spent as she deems, the donor's name being withheld.

Mrs. S. M. Inman spoke on National headquarters in Washington, D. C., stating that there were 40 clubs in the building. She urged that the clubs pay up the pledge made by Georgia before the biennial to be held in May in Atlanta. Mrs. J. Kling, chairman of headquarters for the city federation, announced that the Needlework guild, through Mrs. Arnold Broyles, the Newman club through Mrs. Eli Thomas, and the woman's relief corps through Mrs. Kling, had paid their contributions. Mrs. C. K. Ayer, Mrs. A. P. Wood, Mrs. H. M. Nichols and Mrs. I. Freeman will serve on the committee with the city federation chairman.

Mrs. E. D. McDonald represented the Girls' High Alumnae association and appealed to all graduates to join the association.

Memorial to Father. Mrs. Sarah Cawthon Ayer gave $2,000 memorial to her distinguished father, the late Dr. A. W. Cawthon, of Selma, Ala., following the interesting talk made by Mrs. John K. Oiler, acting director and chairman of the board of trustees of the school, in which she stressed the maintenance fund as the pretest part of the school program. This gift of Mrs. Ayer's will go through Mrs. T. Stevens, as chairman of the educational fund of the Atlanta Woman's club. Mrs. De Los Hill, president of the Atlanta Music club, pledged the presentation of the best of artists through her organization.

White House. Mrs. Hugh Willett was the tribute paid Mrs. Hugh Willett by Mrs. Price Gilbert, who told of Mrs. Willett's devotion towards educating the mountain boy and girl and expressed the daily life of this beloved woman in a talk on "The Joy of Living." Miss Frances Woodberry sang "O Dry Those Tears," accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Charles Chalmers, and afterward a silent prayer was offered by the entire membership.

Most appropriate and commendable address Mrs. W. B. Price-Smith asked that letters of love and sympathy be sent the three past presidents of the federation, Mrs. H. M. Wilson, Mrs. Sam D. Jones and Mrs. Charles Haden, and also included Mrs. Joseph Moore and Mrs. William E. Peel.

Luncheon Follows. Mayor Walter Sims, Dr. A. M. Soule, of Athens; Alfred Newell, president of the chamber of commerce; Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of the Georgia School of Technology; W. A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta public schools, were the distinguished honor guests at the luncheon following the regular meeting and were introduced by Mrs. Stevens in a most charming and appropriate manner.

Dr. Soule told of his observations made in Brazil where he was recently sent to make educational surveys for the government and stated that there were 35,000 people in Brazil with an 80 per cent illiteracy record. McKenzie college in Sappaulo, is the only college affiliated with a college in the United States and the public school system is backward but these buildings are sanitary and well-kept. Brazil boasts of no state university.

Luncheon was served by the Rhododendron club, of which Miss Annie May Brooch is president, with Mrs. Cleves Webb and Mrs. Finch acting as luncheon chairmen. This club sponsors many educational features and is the smallest in point of membership in the federation.

Getting On at the Office

BY HELEN ORMSBEE

THE SAME OLD DIFFICULTY. "It's just awful! The number of bills that have come in to me in the last two days," sighed Elsie Warden, as she and Melissa Johnson hung to scraps in the crowded street car on their way downtown.

Miss Warden looked surprised. "But that's what you were complaining of around the first of January. I should think it would be so by now." "It wouldn't, maybe," confessed Elsie, "only you see I didn't pay a good many of those January bills. And now they're here again."

"That's the trouble with charge accounts," Melissa agreed. "You forget all about them till you see the bills. But why didn't you pay up in January?" "You said you were going to," "Oh, I did pay for some things," explained Elsie. "But after that I got discouraged, and I thought I wouldn't do any harm to wait a little. My dear, I don't believe it's February already! How time flies!"

Miss Warden tried to be consoling. "If you'd pay off some of what you owed, it wouldn't be so hard to wipe out the rest."

"Somehow, Melissa," returned Elsie, "it seems to amount to just as much as ever. That's the disheartening thing about it. Honestly, it gets on my nerves."

"Well, I don't see—"

"But, of course, I bought a few things in January," Elsie admitted. "I simply had to. There was my new dinner dress. I told you about that, Melissa. Why I absolutely hadn't a rag. And I knew the bill wouldn't come in till the first of February."

She spent a moment in silence. "And then, she went on, 'Melissa, I had a sale on hats. Dirt cheap, because it was the end of the season. I only bought one. That felt just like the cocaine feather in my eye, reduced from fifteen-fifty to eight. I bought it, and I believe I'll go so well with my suit—plain and yet there's an air to it. Would you believe it, it was only five-ninety-eight, reduced from fifteen-fifty.'"

"What else did you buy?" demanded Melissa.

"Now, Melissa, don't look at me like that. It's economy to get things when they cut the prices. There was Morris Brothers' January shoe sale. I found the nicest pair of colonial pumps there."

Elsie broke off. "But you're no idea how I felt this morning when I was leaving the house," she added. "The postman handed me my mail and it was all bills. Really my heart was like a lump of lead. It's that way right now."

The street car jolted along for several blocks. Elsie said nothing, but swayed disconsolately from her strain. Then her face brightened. "Melissa," she announced, "I believe I'll go to a matinee today. Saturday, you know. 'Blessings Brighten' at the Farnassus is a wonderful play."

"Yes," commented Melissa. "It's such a big hit, they've raised the prices. I'll cost you a lot."

"Still, I've the cash on my purse," Elsie argued. "And that play'll be just what I need to cheer me up." (Copyright, 1923, for The Constitution.)

each side, the wide sleeves and un-defined neckline. The designers in many ages have been true to Egypt. They never really get from under its spell. Now that we are thrilled anew by the discovery of a tomb that goes to us the artistic glory of Egyptian costume and interior decoration, we are glad to again accept that which we discarded.

One of these new Egyptian frocks might have been copied from one worn by a handmaiden to Cleopatra. The sketch shows it according to its American interpretation. It is of white homespun with sleeves of bright stripes, the colors softened and blended in the Egyptian manner, for ancient art abhorred crudity of coloring, and Egypt and China had given up barbaric tones several thousand years before the dawn of our special brand.

White homespun frock for the south has wide sleeves in stripes of bright stripes, and twisted girdle, also of stripes, which slips through a bone ring in front. This is one of the popular gowns of the month. The girdle shows these stripes, also, but it is small enough not to risk offense. There are few women's figures that can stand a belt of stripes going about the waist or hips, of if this particular pattern is chosen it must be reduced to a minimum in order to do the least harm.

Frocks that go to Florida are of white silk pongee and tricot and knitted wool, as well as homespun, but most of them have the striped sleeves and girdle. Some achieve a higher degree of coloring by sleeve linings of Chinese green, of yellow, of Egyptian red.

It is a relief to get into stripes and away from the mass of figurations taken from Indian shawls and Persian carpets. One must also contend with the landscape fabrics of the hour, which make one's own a pictorial display that suggests a sight-seeing trip to buildings, monuments and churches are used in this patterning. Stripes may be dangerous to some figures, but, honestly, they are better than landscapes.

ONE MUST HAVE TUCKS UP HER SLEEVE. Having something up one's sleeve will be a favorite indoor and outdoor sport this spring, according to Parisian designers. For tiny tucks, going all the way up sleeves on frocks, suits and coats are noted everywhere.

City Federation Meeting Featured By State Song

One of the delightful features of the meeting of the Atlanta City Federation of Women's Clubs held Friday morning in the Chamber of Commerce was the singing of the state song "Georgia," the music of which was written by Mrs. Lollie Belle Wylie and the words by Georgia's poet, Robert Lovenan. Miss Frances Woodberry, who sang, it was accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Charles Chalmers.

"Georgia" was made the official song of the state of Georgia by act of the general assembly of 1922. The resolution adopted at the time the song was selected stated that "the poem expresses the highest and loftiest sentiment as to our beloved state, and that the music as composed by Mrs. Wylie is tuneful, refined and beautiful."

It will be news learned with regret by her many friends that Mrs. Wylie, who is one of Georgia's pioneer newspaper women and talented writers, is very ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles King, on West Eleventh street.

Mrs. J. M. High, Mrs. Charles A. Davis and Mrs. J. E. Spradling presented the appeal that every club in the Federation buy a copy of this song and have the members learn to sing it, and Mrs. R. Price-Smith told of the act of the general assembly.

Boys and Girls Will Have Fine Matinee Program

"The Clown Dance," which will be given as a part of the matinee and boys matinee, at the Howard theatre Saturday morning, February 3, will be danced by the little third grade children of Calhoun Street school, under the direction of their teacher, Miss Frances Stevens, who has been training them for a number of weeks past. The success of the program at the matinee of the past two weeks has led Mrs. Porter Langston, better known as the "Clown Dance" character, to plan further attractions for the matinee of Saturday morning.

Mary Pickford will be seen at the Howard matinee Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the "glad play," "Pollyanna." This play needs no introduction even to the littlest movie fan for the fame of the little orphan who is cheerful and naturally turned a whole village right side out and revolutionized the sour dispositions of the town. The play is a contact, and everybody she came in contact with has spread to the far corners of the earth. Nothing finer for little folks has been seen than Mary in "Pollyanna."

Harold Lloyd will be another adored screen star who will be seen at the Howard matinee Saturday morning at 10 o'clock in the episode—"The Land of Opportunity."

Douglas Fairbanks in the "Lolly-coddle" will be seen through six reels of thrilling love and action entirely suitable to youthful observers at the Alpha Saturday morning and in addition there will be "Pasta and Pasta," featuring Paul Parrott in a hilarious comedy.

Announcement is made by Mrs. W. P. Lemmon, chairman of chapters, that the Howard theatre, courtesy of Mrs. R. C. Boston, will assist in chaperoning, and that at the Alpha, Mrs. G. H. Guy, co-chairman of chapters, will be assisted by Mrs. K. P. Mayson.

Fulton Chapter, O. E. S., Meets Monday

Fulton chapter No. 181, Order Eastern Star, East Point, Ga., will hold a regular meeting Monday night, February 5, at 7:30 o'clock in the East Point Masonic temple. This meeting is of unusual importance and all chapter members are earnestly requested to be present.

Mrs. Howard Harman will entertain at bridge Friday afternoon at her home, Bonaventure avenue, in honor of Mrs. Hardin Goodman. Mrs. Goodman, who is the guest of Mrs. Sabine Nichols, of Marietta, Ga., is making her home in Atlanta at 44 Kennesaw avenue. Mrs. Harman's bridge party is in honor of the assembly thirty guests from Marietta and a group of Atlanta friends.

Mrs. Otis Jones Is Complimented

Mrs. Otis Jones, of Newman, Ga., was the honor guest at a bridge party Friday afternoon given by her mother, Mrs. Julian Jones, at her home in Penn avenue.

The suggestion of Valentine day on the cards, but the decorations throughout the house.

Mrs. Hugh Caldwell was first prize, lovely candlesticks and candles. The second prize, a vase, was won by Mrs. Irving Bargo. Mrs. Strother Fleming won the consolation, a hand-painted calendar. The guest of honor was presented with a mayonnaise bowl.

Mrs. Jones received her guests in a lovely dress of black canton crepe with a hand-painted trim. She was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Hal Morris, who wore brown canton crepe, combined with brown lace.

Mrs. Otis Jones was crowned in blackorgette with beads trimmings. Sixteen guests were present.

Mrs. Strother Fleming will complement Mrs. Jones at a matinee party Saturday, followed by tea at the Pines, under the leadership of Mrs. Jones returns to Newman Sunday.

Junior League Committee Meets

The Junior League committee of the Atlanta Child's Home, of which Mrs. John Holmes is chairman and Mrs. Langston Quinn is co-chairman, met at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon at the Piedmont Driving club when the last of the series of talks by Mrs. Jennie Dargan was given. Miss Dargan has been instructing the committee in kindergarten training.

Beginning Wednesday three members of the Junior League committee will be appointed daily to undertake kindergarten work in the Atlanta Child's Home. A modern kindergarten will be equipped by the Junior League.

VOLPI PROGRAM ENJOYABLE ONE

Unusual Variety and Special Numbers Constitute Delightful Late Broadcast Last Night.

A more delightful and really enjoyable program than the 5:30 to 10:30 broadcast from station WGM last night has not been heard in many months. It was a "Volpi program" and offered an unusual variety of vocal and instrumental solos and duets, featuring pupils of Atlanta's celebrated teacher of voice and couch of opera.

Outstanding features of the program were vocal solos by Nora Allen and John Hinton, two of WGM's exclusive stars, who returned Friday from a concert tour of middle Georgia cities. Miss Allen and Mr. Hinton complied with requests from the North-Highland civic league meeting at Kibbittsville farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Zimmert. Miss Allen gave the "Waltz Song" from La Bohème, and Mr. Hinton sang "Mother in Ireland."

Miss Ruby Ryan, contralto, and Mrs. W. H. Wrigley, Jr., coloratura soprano, both of whom have been heard in vocal numbers in the past, also shared honors in vocal numbers. Miss Ryan's delightful and mellow voice was heard in a number of popular songs, many of which were requested by Atlanta listeners. Mrs. Wrigley possesses an unusually sweet coloratura voice and it was never heard to more advantage than in her selections last night. Gus Cain and W. H. Wrigley, Jr., saxophonists, interspersed the enjoyable vocal numbers with saxophone solos and duets. They are artists of exceptional ability and their numbers contributed much to the late broadcast from this station.

Signor Volpi gave the piano accompaniment for the song numbers in a most acceptable manner. Dr. Gray M. Clinck, noted explorer and big game hunter, gave the second of a series of short addresses to radio fans of station WGM, as the concluding number on last night's program. His explanation of the habits of big game and of the animals of the sub-arctic regions, was unusually interesting and a refreshing departure from an all-musical program.

Auto Problems Is Subject of Radio Address

Expert Will Explain Engine Noises on Early Program Tonight.

E. F. Shriver, WGM's auto expert, will be heard on the 6 to 7 o'clock program tonight in the third of a series of short talks arranged by this station for auto owners. The subject to be discussed tonight will be "Noises That Develop in Internal Combustion Motors, and the Remedies."

Mr. Shriver organized the Georgia Tech motor transport corps and until he resigned from the army recently was in full charge of the unit. During his several years in the army, a lieutenant he held important assignments in motor transport circles and is recognized as an authority on engine troubles.

His address tonight will no doubt be interesting to auto owners, especially those who experience troubles with engines.

Enjoys WGM Programs

The Radio Editor, The Constitution, Dear Sir: I heard most of your concert last night very clearly and enjoyed the program arranged by the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

We could hear you more clearly than the stations nearer to us. I especially enjoyed the singing by the quartet and wish to thank you and them.

Very truly yours,
H. W. FIELD,
Chick, Miss.

COLORED STARS AT WGM TONIGHT

Atlanta Orchestra, Directed by Jessie Murphy, Will Be Heard on 6 to 7 O'Clock Program.

Tonight's 6 to 7 o'clock program at station WGM, The Atlanta Constitution, will present to radio fans of America the south's leading colored orchestra, the Atlanta orchestra, directed by Jessie M. Murphy. This is the second appearance of this widely known colored orchestra at WGM, the first having been so successful that it is now planned to offer these musicians once each month from this station.

The program for tonight will include an exceptional variety of musical offerings, orchestration, vocal and instrumental solos and duets and monologues. It will be an enjoyable early program which fans will no doubt appreciate.

The members of the orchestra are well trained and talented musicians and are directed by Jessie Murphy, one of the best known colored orchestra directors in the south and a teacher in the School of Musical Art of this city.

"All Over Room."

Dear WGM: I receive your concert quite often. They are very clear and good. Can hear you all over room on magnavox and 2-sp. I would like very much to have a copy of your concert of broadcast. Very truly yours,

Charlotte, N. C., February 2.—(Special.)—A total of 285,868 additional spindles were installed in cotton mills in the south during the year 1922, 154,906, considerably more than one-half the total being installed in North Carolina.

A total of 807,720 spindles will be installed in southern cotton mills during the present year. Of this number 585,700 will be installed in North Carolina mills.

These figures are taken from Clark's annual spindle increase list as compiled and published by the Southern Textile Bulletin in its current number. The Clark list shows in detail the installation by the states. Included in the statistical data published by the Bulletin is also a knitting increase list which shows that 2,714 new knitting machines were installed in the south during 1922. Of this number North Carolina installed 1,008, Georgia being second with 532, Tennessee third with 514, and Virginia fourth with 328.

North Carolina leads the entire south in the total number of cotton mills, having a total of 501 cotton mills with 5,530,188 spindles, 78,000 looms and 18,250 knitting machines. South Carolina has 189 cotton mills with 5,136,404 spindles, 119,504 looms and 1,473 knitting machines. Georgia has 179 cotton mills with 4,788,988 spindles, 96,132 looms and 6,913 knitting machines.

It may be deduced from the figures given that North Carolina installed more than 50 per cent of all the spindles installed in the south last year. She will install more than 72 per cent of the spindles being installed in the south during this year. She installed 37 per cent of the knitting machines installed last year.

It is remarked that the total number of spindles installed during 1922 was smaller than for any year during the past 12 years. The number

GEORGIA OFFICIAL TALKS TO FARMERS

Commissioner of Agriculture Tells Farmers of Nation Something of Marketing Products.

Honorable J. J. Brown, commissioner of agriculture of Georgia, was presented to radio fans of America last night from station WGM, "The Atlanta Constitution." Commissioner Brown talked to farmers of the nation in the first of a series of short addresses which this station has arranged for the benefit of the American farmer. This special feature of broadcasts will bring to station WGM some of the leading citizens of the state who will discuss the various problems of agriculture.

Commissioner Brown thanked The Constitution for the privilege to address countless farmers of his own state and nation and expressed his belief that radio would be more and more utilized along the lines first suggested and now being followed by station WGM. The speaker explained why proper marketing and the distribution of products was outstanding problem of farmers of the nation and explained the value of co-operative marketing in radiating the evils which Georgia farmers face.

The address by Commissioner Brown was short and to the point and marked the beginning of a series of talks that have been arranged for farmers of this state.

Assistant Commissioner of Agriculture, Fred T. DeLoach, and J. Jackson, director of the bureau of markets, will be heard from this station during next week, the exact date to be announced later.

Warner's Aces Heard at WGM Friday Night

Popular Constitution Orchestra Thrills Fans With Hits.

Warner's Seven Aces, The Constitution orchestra, minus the services of Conrad Bruckner, one of the best known colored orchestra directors in the south and a teacher in the School of Musical Art of this city.

The early broadcast was unusually enjoyable and many Atlanta listeners who requested special numbers were not disappointed. The program closed without hearing the requests. It was impossible to comply with all the requests, but the Aces will again appear on the program on Monday night from 6 to 7 o'clock, playing only those numbers requested tonight.

The following telegram was received just as the program ended:

"Program coming fine. Gallagher and Sheehan O. K."
Raymond Drug Co.,
Augusta, Ga."

OFFICERS MAKE RAID ON "LEAKY BAGGAGE"

"Leaky baggage," a small steamer trunk with twelve one-gallon cans of corn whiskey packed snugly inside, was confiscated and destroyed by federal prohibition agents Friday morning.

The trunk was brought as baggage from Blue Ridge, Ga., to the Terminal station. Just enough of the trunk was opened to show the contents of the baggage, and the owner failed to present check and claim his property the dry agents stated.

DURANT SECURITIES RECORD ADVANCES

Many Stocks on Curb Market Move to Higher Levels.

New York, February 2.—Prices in today's curb market moved to substantially higher levels in sympathy with the upward tendency on the big board. A run in of the shorts in the Durant issues and marked strength of the high priced oils, particularly the pipe line shares were the features.

Durant of Delaware rallied from its low of 40 to 51 1/2 and Durant of Indiana moved up 3 1/2 trading in the former exceeding 35,000 shares. National Department Stores common of no par value were traded in for the first time, the price ranging from 34 to 36, closing near the top.

Eureka Pipe Line advanced 3 points on a small turnover and Imperial Oil of Canada climbed. Other Standard Oil stocks were strong but the independent shares showed only nominal gains.

Trading in the mining shares was confined largely to the low priced Goldfield issues.

Agricultural Statisticians Discuss Farm Problems

Washington Officials Here With Operatives in Southeast to Help Improve Service.

Discussions designed to further improve the work of the Bureau of agricultural statistics of the United States department of agriculture form the basis of a conference begun in Atlanta Friday between statisticians of the department in the southeast and officials of the state, including Dr. H. H. Taylor, head of the national bureau.

The object of the conference, according to Dr. Taylor, is to provide more efficient methods of gauging the estimated production of cotton, corn, hay and other farm crops, together with losses incurred by the boll weevil and other pests, and also to secure as near as possible the true picture of the agricultural situation in the southeast, and to aid those engaged in agricultural production in cultivating the crops which will make the largest return for the money and labor invested.

More than 1,000 correspondents in Georgia alone provide the Atlanta office of the department with weekly reports of conditions in the agricultural production and other essential facts concerning agricultural conditions in the state. These reports are gone over carefully by local statisticians, cross-checked, and by other methods, every available source of reliability is placed behind the publication of the reports.

New York, February 2.—The cotton market showed a decidedly firmer tone today as offerings were generally light and a slight opening decline was followed by advances. May general closed at 27.47, with the market closing steady at 27.47 to 27.50 points higher on the old at 4 to 5 points on the more active new crop positions. The market opened steady 1 to 13 points lower than yesterday, with a partial response to a relatively quiet Liverpool cables. Offerings were considered light enough to suggest that the market had been pretty well liquidated yesterday, but the market was firmer on covering and renewed reports of trade buying.

Steadier trade cables from Liverpool accompanied by rumors of a more favorable turn in near eastern affairs and the steeper tone of the foreign exchange rate probably crossed the disposition of recent sellers to cover or replace bug lines and there were comparatively few contracts for sale. The market, however, responded readily to moderate buying orders, and while there were spurts of realizing or renewed liquidation during the afternoon, it advanced to 27.50 for March and 27.45 for July.

The supply of contracts seemed to increase somewhat as the market approached the 28-cent level for May, and there may have been a little selling on the smaller speculators taking for the week, but offerings were readily taken and last prices were within a point or two of the best. New crop positions were relatively quiet and seemed to be held back by continued talk of new crop preparations in the south.

Private cables from Liverpool said the earlier declines there were due to a less active spot demand and further liquidation, but that cables had followed up on covering.

Port receipts today 11,339. Exported States port stocks 913,015. Exports 11,207, making 3,339,844 so far this season.

NEW YORK SPOTS.
New York, February 2.—Spot cotton steady; middling 27.50.

COVERING FEATURES
NEW ORLEANS COTTON

New Orleans, La., February 2.—Covering of the recently created short interest was the dominating factor in making prices in the cotton market today. On the opening there was a break of 4 to 5 points but this was quickly replaced by a net advance which gradually was widened. Heavy net buying was met in the early afternoon and it put prices 10 to 30 points higher than the close of yesterday. Market rising to 27.44 after trading as low as 26.93 cents a pound. On the close March stood at 27.50 with the list at net gains of 10 to 30 points. While the market appeared to be stimulated by reports of a very strong spot situation in the interior and by favorable rumors from Liverpool and London, the attitude of the Turks toward allied proposals. The opening decline was due to a poor Liverpool market and further rumors of the western cotton belt. Around the middle of the day small reactions occurred of about 10 points, because of a report that the mill takings, 217,000 bales for the week against 240,000 this week last year.

October, the only really active new crop position, lagged behind the old crop at the advance because of scores of messages from the belt, particularly to the western, indicating that the crop preparations were well advanced and that the indications were for a substantial increase in the acreage. October was, however, under pressure but it did not have the strength of old crop positions.

NEW ORLEANS SPOTS.
New Orleans, February 2.—Spot cotton steady and unchanged. Sales on the spot 391; to arrive 917. Low middling 26.87; middling 27.42; good middling 28.12; receipts 4,004; stock 207,600.

At 1 o'clock in the afternoon Dr. Sparks was given a luncheon in the Rainbow room of the Ansley hotel. He spoke on "College and Fraternity Relations."

Dr. Sparks will motor to Stone Mountain Saturday. He will lunch at the Capital City club, and will leave for Tusculossa in the evening, where he will address fraternity members at the University of Alabama next Monday.

MAIL ORDER HOUSE PLANS BRANCH HERE

Montgomery, Ward & Company Will Open South-eastern Offices Here.

A southeastern branch of Montgomery, Ward and company, of Chicago, one of the largest mail order houses in America, will soon be opened in Atlanta, it was disclosed Friday.

A two-story brick structure at 272 Ivy street, containing 15,000 square feet of floor space, has been leased to the company through the Burdette Realty company. The structure is near the junction of Ivy and Peachtree streets.

The branch will be used as a distributing point for tires, batteries and other automobile accessories, it was reported.

R. E. Pendleton, an experienced executive of Montgomery, Ward and company, will be manager of the branch. Other branches of the company are located in New York, Kansas City, Portland and Dallas.

NEW HOOCH QUOTATION

Pint Liquid Warmth Worth 100 Pounds of Mineral Kind.

Cobb Andrews, negro truck driver for Randall Bros., coal dealers, failed so far to realize the value of coal and his love for "corn liquor" was so fervent that he was willing to exchange 100 pounds of anthracite jewelry for a bottle of "hooch."

If it had not been for the all-seeing eye of the law, Andrews and his transaction would have passed unnoticed and he would have been hailed before Recorder Johnson Friday and fined $15 and costs on a charge of "larceny after trust."

Andrews pleaded guilty to the charge that he had delivered 100 pounds of coal to a friend in premise of a reward of a bottle of fire-water. The coal was supposed to be en route to the Arizona hotel in "ton" form, but Andrews was detected while unloading some of the ton into the yard of the owner of the cherished corn juice, and the tentative exchange of two valuable and almost equally extinct sources of warmth was nipped in the bud.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVORS HEAR BABSON

Roger W. Babson, internationally known economist and business expert, arrived last evening in the Chamber of Commerce with the officers of the Atlanta Christian Endeavor union. He had contracted influenza but insisted upon keeping his engagement, and celebrating the forty-third birthday of Christian Endeavor.

Mr. Babson stressed particularly the value of religion in business, stating that machinery, markets and plants are not the most important part of business, but that man is of the greatest value, and adding, "muscle, bone and brain are of less consequence than the soul of man."

After the supper, Mr. Babson and his party left immediately for Florida.

Members of the Babson organization, Dr. B. O. Holtzendorfer, president of the Epworth League Union of Atlanta, and Dr. J. W. Caldwell, Jr., of the advisory committee of Christian Endeavor, were guests of the union.
